

The Weymouth Weekly Gazette.

VOL. 3.

WEYMOUTH, MASS., FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1869.

NO. 5

C. S. WILLIAMS,
WEYMOUTH.

A COMPLETE SUCCESS

After a great many experiments the REVERSIBLE COLLAR CO. have succeeded in inventing this collar, which reflects much credit to the manufacturers, and will add thousands to the number of those now wearing Paper Collars. All having had experience with this indispensable article are well aware that the great fault with Paper Collars in the past has been their liability to tear out at the button holes, but now no such objections can be urged against the

New Bicycle or Velocipede Collar

AS IT IS A

Cloth Collar lined with Paper,

THUS

SECURING STRENGTH, DURABILITY, & CHEAPNESS

three very essential qualifications, and making one of the most stylish and economical Collars ever offered to the public, put up in neat square boxes, with the engraving heading this advertisement, stamped in gilt on every box.

Let every one appreciating a good strong Collar, faultless in style and finish, call at

C. S. WILLIAMS'

Dry Goods and Clothing Store,

WEYMOUTH LANDING,

and purchase a box of the "BICYCLE."

CHEAP! CHEAPER! CHEAPEST!

"Oh! father, dear, do not ask me to do that. I would lay down my life for you, but I could not marry Harry Liston. Victor Stanhope is noble—a true man in heart and deed—a perfect gentleman in honor, whatever he may be by birth and name; but Harry Liston is bad—a gambler and a very dissipated man. I will never marry, but will be always your daughter Grace," and she laid her beautiful head upon his shoulder.

"Grace, I think you are in regard to Harry Liston's character. A love for society and its gaieties he inherited from his father; but I have never seen anything in him which indicated dissipation beyond that which we expect in all young men of wealth. But I will not urge the matter; you know my wishes now, and all I ask of you now is to receive him as my friend, and I will trust to time and to his own ingenuity to work a favorable change in his feelings towards him."

"Most certainly, dear father, any friend of yours will always meet with respect from me. Mr. Liston shall always be made welcome here, since you request it; but love him I never can. Besides, dear father, Harry Liston has never paid me any attention; but on the contrary he has been devoted, for some time past, and generally considered engaged to my friend, Rosa Ingersoll."

"Grace, I must disabuse your mind of that idea, and inform you that Mr. Liston has, with a delicacy which does him great credit, called on me, knowing, as I believe, nothing of his father's intention, and requested the privilege of being considered a suitor for your hand."

"Enough, father; I have said that any friend of yours, however disagreeable to me, shall receive proper treatment from me for your sake, but do not ask me, nor expect me, even to look with favor on Harry Liston."

When Grace Waldron retired to her own room, she felt miserable. Every word that Victor Stanhope had uttered was in her memory. His deep, respectful love, despite her pride, had sunk into her heart. She reflected how very differently he would have acted towards her had her eyes been reversed, and she could have stood before her then, she would have flung herself at his feet and begged forgiveness for her cruel, taunting words. But Victor Stanhope was even then listening to words which might separate her from him forever.

And then her thoughts turned to what her father had said in regard to Harry Liston, and could Mr. Harry have known her thoughts, his hopes of drawing that prize in the lottery of matrimony, would have been dashed.

But he had secured the favor of the father, and trusted to the fluent tongue, the persuasive voice, the devoted attention which had won Rosa Ingersoll's heart, to undo what Victor Stanhope had done, and to win for him the beautiful Grace Waldron—and her fortune.

Grace tried to drown her feelings in a continual round of amusements. The theatre, the opera, the dance, it seemed she could not have enough of, till Frederick Waldron was reminded of another young and beautiful woman whom those same tastes had years before driven from his home. Harry Liston was with them constantly. He could see that Grace did not favor him at all; but he thought

Original Serial.

Grace Waldron,

—OR—
THE FALSE DAUGHTER.

A TALE OF NEW YORK.

CHAPTER X.

And now to return to Grace Waldron, whom we have neglected full long. After leaving Victor Stanhope in the library, she returned to the drawing-room. She heard his step in the hall; she heard the door close as he left the house; she heard the storm he had to face, as it beat upon the windows; but that storm was a dead calm to the storm of feelings in her own bosom. For months she had loved him; for months had her quick ear listened for his footsteps in the evening, knowing his sound as soon as he heard, for months had his quick, peculiar pull at the door-bell rung a merry peal to her heart; and now for no fault of his, her pride had driven him from her, she felt how much she had loved him.

"Grace, my love, who was your visitor?" asked Mr. Waldron.

"It was he whom we called Victor Stanhope," Grace answered, pride again conquering her softer feelings; "but I don't think he will call again."

"Well, Grace, perhaps it is better so. I liked him very much, but I should not have wished to see you, my pride, my all, united to one about whose name and whose birth there is such a mystery."

And now that we are upon this subject, let me speak to you of a matter which is very near my heart. When I saw, or thought I saw, that you were attached to Victor Stanhope, I determined to let your own heart guide you. When the sudden death of his guardian deprived him of the power of proving who he really is, I still kept silence, as I would not cross your love; but since your own good judgment has pointed out to you the proper course, I can explain to you my wishes and my plans. You know, Grace, that I shall love to you a very large fortune, and it is a matter of no small moment to me that when you do marry, you shall marry a man to whom I can confide your happiness and your wealth. I must go back somewhat and tell you of things which occurred before you can remember. At the time of your birth, the father of him you now long known, Harry Liston, and I were partners, and very firm friends. There was an agreement between us that Harry and you should be destined for each other, and unite the fortunes your fathers had made together; but my poor friend left this world of care and woe before he could witness the fulfillment of the contract.

"I loved the son, for the sake of the father, and, Grace, if I could see you united to Harry Liston, I should feel that my old friend's spirit smiled approval, and old life contented."

"Oh! father, dear, do not ask me to do that. I would lay down my life for you, but I could not marry Harry Liston. Victor Stanhope is noble—a true man in heart and deed—a perfect gentleman in honor, whatever he may be by birth and name; but Harry Liston is bad—a gambler and a very dissipated man. I will never marry, but will be always your daughter Grace," and she laid her beautiful head upon his shoulder.

"Grace, I think you are in regard to Harry Liston's character. A love for society and its gaieties he inherited from his father; but I have never seen anything in him which indicated dissipation beyond that which we expect in all young men of wealth. But I will not urge the matter; you know my wishes now, and all I ask of you now is to receive him as my friend, and I will trust to time and to his own ingenuity to work a favorable change in his feelings towards him."

"Most certainly, dear father, any friend of yours will always meet with respect from me. Mr. Liston shall always be made welcome here, since you request it; but love him I never can. Besides, dear father, Harry Liston has never paid me any attention; but on the contrary he has been devoted, for some time past, and generally considered engaged to my friend, Rosa Ingersoll."

"Grace, I must disabuse your mind of that idea, and inform you that Mr. Liston has, with a delicacy which does him great credit, called on me, knowing, as I believe, nothing of his father's intention, and requested the privilege of being considered a suitor for your hand."

"Enough, father; I have said that any friend of yours, however disagreeable to me, shall receive proper treatment from me for your sake, but do not ask me, nor expect me, even to look with favor on Harry Liston."

When Grace Waldron retired to her own room, she felt miserable. Every word that Victor Stanhope had uttered was in her memory. His deep, respectful love, despite her pride, had sunk into her heart. She reflected how very differently he would have acted towards her had her eyes been reversed, and she could have stood before her then, she would have flung herself at his feet and begged forgiveness for her cruel, taunting words. But Victor Stanhope was even then listening to words which might separate her from him forever.

And then her thoughts turned to what her father had said in regard to Harry Liston, and could Mr. Harry have known her thoughts, his hopes of drawing that prize in the lottery of matrimony, would have been dashed.

But he had secured the favor of the father, and trusted to the fluent tongue, the persuasive voice, the devoted attention which had won Rosa Ingersoll's heart, to undo what Victor Stanhope had done, and to win for him the beautiful Grace Waldron—and her fortune.

Grace tried to drown her feelings in a continual round of amusements. The theatre, the opera, the dance, it seemed she could not have enough of, till Frederick Waldron was reminded of another young and beautiful woman whom those same tastes had years before driven from his home. Harry Liston was with them constantly. He could see that Grace did not favor him at all; but he thought he knew how to play his cards, and he regularly laid siege to Grace Waldron's heart. Wherever she was, he was at her side. In the ball-room, he assumed a quiet possession of her which she could not evade. There was an air of humble deference to all her wishes, which though it galled her, she could not take offence at. He never mentioned love to her, but he acted it in every motion when others were near to see them. The wine bottle and the gaming table had, for a while, lost their charm for him. In pursuing Grace Waldron, there was more of excitement than he had ever found in wine—in her fortune was a greater stake than any he had ever played for. His very character seemed changed, and from thinking of nothing but Grace, he came to almost loving her. He purposely hinted, in a modest way, to his friends that he considered already that he was a favored suitor, and the marked favor Mr. Waldron showed him, gave an appearance of truth to his assumption.

One thing, besides dissipation, had, however, given occupation to Grace Waldron's mind, and served to direct her thoughts from brooding over the loss of Victor Stanhope. On the evening of a small party at the house of a friend, a young lady said to her, so as to be heard by the others, "Grace, Walter Bland's regiment is nearly full; we all of us know a good many of the officers; what do you say to getting up a banner and having a grand presentation with martial music, speeches and lots of cheering for the fair donors? I think it would be very proper and very patriotic. The subject once started, met with favor in the circle. Harry Liston finding that Grace favored the idea, got very enthusiastic.

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

he knew how to play his cards, and he regularly laid siege to Grace Waldron's heart. Wherever she was, he was at her side. In the ball-room, he assumed a quiet possession of her which she could not evade. There was an air of humble deference to all her wishes, which though it galled her, she could not take offence at. He never mentioned love to her, but he acted it in every motion when others were near to see them. The wine bottle and the gaming table had, for a while, lost their charm for him. In pursuing Grace Waldron, there was more of excitement than he had ever found in wine—in her fortune was a greater stake than any he had ever played for. His very character seemed changed, and from thinking of nothing but Grace, he came to almost loving her. He purposely hinted, in a modest way, to his friends that he considered already that he was a favored suitor, and the marked favor Mr. Waldron showed him, gave an appearance of truth to his assumption.

One thing, besides dissipation, had, however, given occupation to Grace Waldron's mind, and served to direct her thoughts from brooding over the loss of Victor Stanhope. On the evening of a small party at the house of a friend, a young lady said to her, so as to be heard by the others, "Grace, Walter Bland's regiment is nearly full; we all of us know a good many of the officers; what do you say to getting up a banner and having a grand presentation with martial music, speeches and lots of cheering for the fair donors? I think it would be very proper and very patriotic. The subject once started, met with favor in the circle. Harry Liston finding that Grace favored the idea, got very enthusiastic.

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

"Come, Mr. Liston," said the young lady who had first made the proposition, "you must help us, for we ladies cannot do this thing alone."

"Oh! it is my own idea," he said. "Such a presentation will encourage our brave soldiers with the hope that the ladies who cannot take an active part in the war, remember those who are to offer up their lives for their country. But you must move at once, if at all, for the regiment will be off in a few days."

Immediately every one was talking about what the banner should be made of, what should be the true design and what the motto.

the occasion, was Grace Waldron, surrounded by those who assisted in the making of the banner. Directly behind her at her right hand stood Harry Liston, and at her left, her father. Dressed in dark blue silk, a compliment to the dark blue uniform, her head wreathed with the national colors, under a canopy formed by the flag of the free, never was there a more beautiful, nor fitting representative of the goddess of liberty—Colonel Bland stood before her. In a clear, sweet, ringing voice she addressed him—"Colonel, officers, and soldiers—although deprived the privilege of sharing in the hardships, which it is your destiny to encounter, it gives us ladies pleasure, to know that you will bear with you in this banner, a memento that our hearts and our hopes are with you, and we have faith in the hands to which we confide it, that our banner will never go down before, never be yielded to traitors."

Accept, then, my gift and remembering the sacred cause in which it is raised and the prayers which will follow it, may you bear it on to victory and return with it, battered and torn, it may be, but still the emblem of our faith."

It will be remembered that Victor Stanhope was the captain of the color company. When Edward Morton had spoken to Colonel Bland in regard to him, he had told more than Victor would have wished told. Colonel Bland knew the story of Victor Stanhope's dismissal by Grace Waldron.

"Thank you," said he in response to the address of Grace, "and your fair friends for the honor you have conferred upon me and upon my regiment. I request of you and of them to forget my words—and for your broken sword, take mine, and I will hope that the colors of the old army will be as long still hanging at the side of a Colonel; and I will to the action to his words by tendering Victor his sword."

The anecdote honorable was so perfectly, so promptly made that Victor Stanhope could not but accept it, and he replied, "Colonel, pardon my haste, but the point of your sword touched on a tender point. Keep your sword—I am not worthy to wear it and mine must have been a base weapon to break at its first encounter."

None but those who understood the full meaning of the little drama, and though all wondered, not one spoke a word, but a sign of relief went up from every breast. Stanhope and Colonel Bland resumed their seats. Every thing like gaiety was of course at an end, and the hour was getting late, the company dispersed and ere morning the 4th New York regiment was on its way to the seat of war.

FLAG PRESENTATION.—The annexed letter was received by the Committee of Post 40, in response to an invitation to be present at the flag presentation last week.

EAST WEYMOUTH, May 25th, 1869.
GENT. BEN. F. PRATT, Chairman of Committee, &c. Dear Sir,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your invitation to participate in the ceremonies connected with the presentation of a flag to the 4th New York regiment, and I regret that absence from town will deprive me of the pleasure of being present and paying my humble tribute of appreciation of the patriotic services of yourself and comrades, who bore so honorable a part in fighting the battles and gaining the victory, which, under God, secured the work of American freedom, so that slavery is now numbered with the things that were.

With prayer, song, and eloquent words—and I am sure the costly tribute of tears will not be wanting—your Post of the Grand Army of the Republic is to receive a pledge which will be a constant reminder to their memory those who have given to the nation its perpetuity and to the honor and glory of whose country they are now fighting for.

And here I would further observe and error into which I have not conspicuously fallen, viz: the calling Dame Hubbard the mother of an interesting family of children. The history in which the quadruped which followed in Mistress Hubbard's footsteps, remained with an appetite unsatisfied. Sore affliction!—And here I would further observe and error into which I have not conspicuously fallen, viz: the calling Dame Hubbard the mother of an interesting family of children. The history in which the quadruped which followed in Mistress Hubbard's footsteps, remained with an appetite unsatisfied. Sore affliction!—

Another fault, still, S. without any foundation, asserts that a passage in the ancient biography, suggested a note to Gould Brown, Esq. Now we, the readers and all other sensible persons, are satisfied that Mr. Brown is coeval with our language—that he was in existence ages ago. How, then, can we ascertain anything concerning him with certainty? The facts in the next case are, simply, as follows. The Dame, naturally enough, when absent failed at home, wended her way toward the residence of the individual who provided the 'staff of life' for the neighborhood, and having procured the object of her promenade, she unconsciously retraced her steps; and, happily for her, the quadruped was, or appeared to be, destitute of every spark of vitality; his desire for food had ceased to burn, and he lay low in the dust. I have said, 'happily for her,' because there is every reason to believe she ate the bread herself. Now S. remarks very unjustly that this trip to the baker's was useless and the bread valueless. Valueless! does this writer weigh well his words? Alas! I fear not. Doubtless, she must have been deeply grieved, after expending her hard earnings upon his coffin, to find, upon her return, that the expenditure had been useless. It is, therefore, not reasonable, as in the case of S., to suppose that she could unite with her unfeeling follower, when he so far forgot himself as to exert his ribbilities in this solemn and sacred duty. I do not, therefore, give credence to the assertion made by S. that the good lady joined him.

That he was a happy day is beyond question. I do not for a moment entertain the idea that the pipe he smoked was mere sham, and veritable only in being veritable. He may have eaten tripe—the endurance of any stomach, under the pressure of hunger, is very great. He may have been clad in costly raiment—such things are observable to-day, but had it not been for a French poule, the memory of whose wonderful performances excites laughter even while I write, that I once saw inverted, I should feel disposed to dispute, not only S., but the ancient author also.

A young artisan once called on a shrewd old gentleman and announced to him that he thought he had received a call from the Lord to become a preacher. And do people seem to have a call to hear you, my friend? asked the elder.

too sacred to Victor Stanhope to be made the subject of any hard words before such a company; so meely saying "another claims the honor of replying," he remained seated while Harry Liston made a brief response.

"And now, gentlemen," said Colonel Bland, "there was a second flag presentation to-day, and I will call upon Captain Stanhope, who was fortunate enough to receive both, to respond to this toast. 'The two white flags, may his arm ever defend both.'"

"Stanhope, Stanhope," was the cry from all, and "how about that flag of truce?" was uttered by several; but Victor Stanhope instead of replying, rose and with a face fearfully pale drew his sword and driving the point of it into the floor with such force that the blade broke, said, "Colonel Bland there; my sword almost choked him—Captain Stanhope, I apologise to you for my thoughtlessness and I ask you here before your brother officers to pardon my disregard for your feelings, and I request of you and of them to forget my words—and for your broken sword, take mine, and I will hope that the colors of the old army will be as long still hanging at the side of a Colonel; and I will to the action to his words by tendering Victor his sword."

The anecdote honorable was so perfectly, so promptly made that Victor Stanhope could not but accept it, and he replied, "Colonel, pardon my haste, but the point of your sword touched on a tender point. Keep your sword—I am not worthy to wear it and mine must have been a base weapon to break at its first encounter."

None but those who understood the full meaning of the little drama, and though all wondered, not one spoke a word, but a sign of relief went up from every breast. Stanhope and Colonel Bland resumed their seats. Every thing like gaiety was of course at an end, and the hour was getting late, the company dispersed and ere morning the 4th New York regiment was on its way to the seat of war.

FLAG PRESENTATION.—The annexed letter was received by the Committee of Post 40, in response to an invitation to be present at the flag presentation last week.

EAST WEYMOUTH, May 25th, 1869.
GENT. BEN. F. PRATT, Chairman of Committee, &c. Dear Sir,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your invitation to participate in the ceremonies connected with the presentation of a flag to the 4th New York regiment, and I regret that absence from town will deprive me of the pleasure of being present and paying my humble tribute of appreciation of the patriotic services of yourself and comrades, who bore so honorable a part in fighting the battles and gaining the victory, which, under God, secured the work of American freedom, so that slavery is now numbered with the things that were.

With prayer, song, and eloquent words—and I am sure the costly tribute of tears will not be wanting—your Post of the Grand Army of the Republic is to receive a pledge which will be a constant reminder to their memory those who have given to the nation its perpetuity and to the honor and glory of whose country they are now fighting for.

And here I would further observe and error into which I have not conspicuously fallen, viz: the calling Dame Hubbard the mother of an interesting family of children. The history in which the quadruped which followed in Mistress Hubbard's footsteps, remained with an appetite unsatisfied. Sore affliction!—And here I would further observe and error into which I have not conspicuously fallen, viz: the calling Dame Hubbard the mother of an interesting family of children. The history in which the quadruped which followed in Mistress Hubbard's footsteps, remained with an appetite unsatisfied. Sore affliction!—

Another fault, still, S. without any foundation, asserts that a passage in the ancient biography, suggested a note to Gould Brown, Esq. Now we, the readers and all other sensible persons, are satisfied that Mr. Brown is coeval with our language—that he was in existence ages ago. How, then, can we ascertain anything concerning him with certainty? The facts in the next case are, simply, as follows. The Dame, naturally enough, when absent failed at home, wended her way toward the residence of the individual who provided the 'staff of life' for the neighborhood, and having procured the object of her

P. QUANTS.
There was a man who lived in Cass County, Georgia, many years ago, who had once been in the State Legislature, and never neglected an opportunity to emphasize the fact. He was a perfect infidel as to new discoveries and new sciences, being perfectly satisfied that if the world should turn over, all the water would spill out of his well; and only giving in to steam-cars by slow degrees. But all the while of his contempt were poured out upon the idea of a telegraph, and he was wont to say that nobody need try to come 'round' over him in that way, for he had for the time being, in the State of Georgia, a telegraph line. Finally, the State road was built, and one day workmen began to put up telegraph-posts right in front of his house, and to stretch the wire. His exultant neighbors thought they had him on the occasion, and asked:

Well, old fellow, what do you think of telegraphs now?
He was cornered, but did game. Drawing himself up to an inch taller, he said:

Gentlemen, when I was in the Legislature I gave this subject my very attentive consideration. And I said, even, I say now, that it may do for letters and small bundles, but it never will take a steamboat, never!

Orsay, in remarking on the beauty-spoken on the cheek of Lady Southampton, compared it to a gem on a rose-leaf.

The comparison is far-fetched, observed her ladyship.

How can that be, rejoined the Count, when it is made on the spot?

HENRIOT is the name of a California town.

An irrepressible boy of five years, who was always compelled to keep quiet on Sunday, having grown weary toward the close of a Sunday, frankly and honestly approached his excellent but rather strict father, and gravely said: 'Pa, let's have a little spiritual fun. This was much more fun than the prayer, but for the strictness of the father, and for once he let him enter till bedtime.

BOSTON.
RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—The religious awakening continues in East Boston, upwards of 500 being hopefully converted in the several evangelistic societies.—Extra meetings are also held by the Universalist and Unitarian churches. Twenty were received to the 1st Presbyterian church a week since and the Maverick church is to have a special reception of members June 6.

Rev. Mr. Dunn's society has paid off its debt of $30,000 on the edifice on Beach St. Dr. Adams society has sold theirs on Essex St. for $30,000. Dr. Cullis has added a fourth building to his Home for Consumptives and asylum for Orphans, namely, a new building, but for the training of christian women for various missionary services. Rev. S. S. Herrick's church, Chelsea, have bought a lot on Union Park to erect a house of worship to be owned by the church. The movement for free church sitting is gaining ground in that city.

Prof. Lunge says he has ordered the substitution of the name of Jesus for that of the Virgin Mary in the passage from the 'Inflammatus' to be sung at the Peace Jubilee.

The division of the Baptist and Congregational proprietorship in the American Tract Society, Boston, appears to have little interest in religious circles.

ECLECTIC. This new Life Insurance Company combines in one the excellencies of the many and makes no restriction on sex, occupation or travel. It insures at fair rates and its policies are non-forfeitable, interchangeable, and secure the benefits of the mutual system with those of a carefully proprietary supervision. Mr. Louis W. Burnham, 106 Washington street, general manager.

FALSE HAIR. A leading Episcopal paper says that the prevailing custom among women in wearing false hair is "an offence against law and gospel" and ridicules the act of the bishop at baptism "fumbling about amid a mass of rubbish from the four corners of the earth."—Beecher, the other day, requested the female candidates for baptism to remove their head dresses before the performance of the rite.

Advertisements.
I. TUCK
South Weymouth,
Agent for the Celebrated Peerless Cooking and Parlor
STOVES

Housekeeping
G. O. Radcliff

Has made arrangements to supply persons commencing housekeeping with everything pertaining to their needs, including FURNITURE, of all kinds, KITCHEN FURNISHINGS, LINEN, Glass, Wooden and Britannia Ware, Cutlery, etc., which will be furnished at prices ensuring a great saving of Cash. Call at the "New Stand," and obtain estimates which will be found as low as the lowest.

OUTFITS
FOR
HOUSEKEEPING
G. O. Radcliff

Has made arrangements to supply persons commencing housekeeping with everything pertaining to their needs, including FURNITURE, of all kinds, KITCHEN FURNISHINGS, LINEN, Glass, Wooden and Britannia Ware, Cutlery, etc., which will be furnished at prices ensuring a great saving of Cash. Call at the "New Stand," and obtain estimates which will be found as low as the lowest.

OUTFITS
FOR
HOUSEKEEPING
G. O. Radcliff

Has made arrangements to supply persons commencing housekeeping with everything pertaining to their needs, including FURNITURE, of all kinds, KITCHEN FURNISHINGS, LINEN, Glass, Wooden and Britannia Ware, Cutlery, etc., which will be furnished at prices ensuring a great saving of Cash. Call at the "New Stand," and obtain estimates which will be found as low as the lowest.

OUTFITS
FOR
HOUSEKEEPING
G. O. Radcliff

Has made arrangements to supply persons commencing housekeeping with everything pertaining to their needs, including FURNITURE, of all kinds, KITCHEN FURNISHINGS, LINEN, Glass, Wooden and Britannia Ware, Cutlery, etc., which will be furnished at prices ensuring a great saving of Cash. Call at the "New Stand," and obtain estimates which will be found as low as the lowest.

OUTFITS
FOR
HOUSEKEEPING
G. O. Radcliff

Has made arrangements to supply persons commencing housekeeping with everything pertaining to their needs, including FURNITURE, of all kinds, KITCHEN FURNISHINGS, LINEN, Glass, Wooden and Britannia Ware, Cutlery, etc., which will be furnished at prices ensuring a great saving of Cash. Call at the "New Stand," and obtain estimates which will be found as low as the lowest.

OUTFITS
FOR
HOUSEKEEPING
G. O. Radcliff

Has made arrangements to supply persons commencing housekeeping with everything pertaining to their needs, including FURNITURE, of all kinds, KITCHEN FURNISHINGS, LINEN, Glass, Wooden and Britannia Ware, Cutlery, etc., which will be furnished at prices ensuring a great saving of Cash. Call at the "New Stand," and obtain estimates which will be found as low as the lowest.

OUTFITS
FOR
HOUSEKEEPING
G. O. Radcliff

Has made arrangements to supply persons commencing housekeeping with everything pertaining to their needs, including FURNITURE, of all kinds, KITCHEN FURNISHINGS, LINEN, Glass, Wooden and Britannia Ware, Cutlery, etc., which will be furnished at prices ensuring a great saving of Cash. Call at the "New Stand," and obtain estimates which will be found as low as the lowest.

OUTFITS
FOR
HOUSEKEEPING
G. O. Radcliff

Has made arrangements to supply persons commencing housekeeping with everything pertaining to their needs, including FURNITURE, of all kinds, KITCHEN FURNISHINGS, LINEN, Glass, Wooden and Britannia Ware, Cutlery, etc., which will be furnished at prices ensuring a great saving of Cash. Call at the "New Stand," and obtain estimates which will be found as low as the lowest.

OUTFITS
FOR
HOUSEKEEPING
G. O. Radcliff

Has made arrangements to supply persons commencing housekeeping with everything pertaining to their needs, including FURNITURE, of all kinds, KITCHEN FURNISHINGS, LINEN, Glass, Wooden and Britannia Ware, Cutlery, etc., which will be furnished at prices ensuring a great saving of Cash. Call at the "New Stand," and obtain estimates which will be found as low as the lowest.

OUTFITS
FOR
HOUSEKEEPING
G. O. Radcliff

Has made arrangements to supply persons commencing housekeeping with everything pertaining to their needs, including FURNITURE, of all kinds, KITCHEN FURNISHINGS, LINEN, Glass, Wooden and Britannia Ware, Cutlery, etc., which will be furnished at prices ensuring a great saving of Cash. Call at the "New Stand," and obtain estimates which will be found as low as the lowest.

OUTFITS
FOR
HOUSEKEEPING
G. O. Radcliff

Has made arrangements to supply persons commencing housekeeping with everything pertaining to their needs, including FURNITURE, of all kinds, KITCHEN FURNISHINGS, LINEN, Glass, Wooden and Britannia Ware, Cutlery, etc., which will be furnished at prices ensuring a great saving of Cash. Call at the "New Stand," and obtain estimates which will be found as low as the lowest.

Widening of Hanover Street.

IMPORTANT

TO BUYERS OF

CARPETS.

Anticipating that our business will be interrupted while the widening of Hanover Street is in progress, we shall endeavor to reduce our stock by offering goods at the following

POPULAR PRICES:

SCOTCH CARPETS, per Yard..... 20c.

HEAVY COTTAAGE CARPETS, (Brussels Patterns)..... 45c.

HEAVY COTTAAGE CARPETS, (Brussels Patterns)..... 45c.

INGRAM CARPETS..... 50c.

FINE WOOL CARPETS..... 50c.

EXTRA FINE WOOL CARPETS, Bright Colors, warranted free from Cotton or Shoddy..... $1.00

STUPERB WOOL CARPETS..... 1.25

THREE-PLY CARPETS, (all wool)..... 1.00

GENUINE ENGLISH BRUSSELS TAP-ETRY..... 1.50

OIL CLOTHS,

2 to 18 feet wide.

White, Checked and Fancy.

China Mattings,

Together with a large assortment of

Window Shades

Goods cheerfully shown. Orders by mail will receive prompt attention.

Learnard & Hartley,

AT THE OLD STAND,

134 Hanover St. and 78 and 80 Union St.,

BOSTON. 2-5

The Question of the Hour.

LOOK! OBSERVE and REFLECT.

ON MAY 15th

We transferred our entire Wholesale Stock, consisting of a General Assortment of

Gents', Ladies', Misses', Boys', Youths', and Children's

Boots and Shoes,

TO OUR

Retail Store,

14 Tremont Row, - - - Boston,

During the remainder of this month, and through the month of June, they will be offered to our retail customers as low as BOOTS AND SHOES can be bought at any Wholesale Store.

COMPETITION! COMPETITION!

Prices Low, Lower, Lowest.

Read the Price-List and Ponder.

Gents' Fine French Calf Sewed Boots, $8.00

Gents' Fine French Calf Sewed Boots, 7.00

Gents' Fine French Calf Sewed Boots, 6.00

Gents' Fine French Calf Boots, 5.00

Gents' Fine Calf Boots, 4.00

Gents' Fine Opera Boots, 3.50

Gents' Fine Patent Leather Boots, 3.50

Gents' Fine Calf Sewed Congress, 4.50

Gents' Fine Congress, 4.00

Gents' Fine Sewed Oxfords, 4.00

Gents' Fine Oxfords, $2.50, $3.00, 3.50

Gents' Puffed Oxfords, 2.00 to 2.50

With a splendid assortment of every kind of

Gent's Balancers, French Hip Strap Shoes, Brogan,

Union Shoes, Serge Boots of all styles, Buckskin Congresses for tender feet, Zip

Boots, Grained Boots and Cowhide Boots, making

The Most Extensive

AS WELL AS

THE MOST DESIRABLE

STOCK OF

GENTS' BOOTS AND SHOES

Ever offered at retail

In the United States.

LADIES' STOCK,

Consisting of

French Kid Boots, Brogan Kid Boots,

every style of Serge Boots, French Calf Boots,

Goat Boots, &c.

LADIES' SERGE BUTTON BOOTS, $2.00,

$2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00,

LADIES' SERGE POLISH HIGH CUT, $2.00,

$2.50, $3.00, $3.50,

LADIES' CONGRESS BOOTS, $1.00, $1.25,

$1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50,

LADIES' LEATHER BOOTS, $2.00, $2.50,

$3.00, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00,

LADIES' FRENCH Calf Congress, $2.50,

$3.00, $3.50,

LADIES' SERGE BALMORALS, $1.25, $1.50,

$2.00,

LADIES' GOAT POLISH, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50,

LADIES' SERGE BUSKINS, $1.25,

LADIES' KID BUSKINS, $1.25,

LADIES' SLIPPERS, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50,

$1.75, $2.00,

LADIES' WHITE KID SLIPPERS, French

best, $2.00,

MISSIE'S FRENCH KID, BRONZE KID,

and all kinds of SLATE-COLORED

BOOTS of all kinds.

MISSIE'S SERGE BUTTON, SERGE POL-

ISH, SERGE CONGRESS, and SERGE BAL-

MORALS, of every description.

MISSIE'S and CHILDREN'S STOUT SCHOOL

BOOTS, $1.25 and $1.50.

BOYS' and YOUTHS' Calf DOOTS and

SIDERS, of all kinds and prices.

Remember!

That our whole stock will be at the disposal of our

Retail Customers.

Store open from 6 A. M. till 7 P. M.; Saturdays 11

P. M.

JOHN MASSFIELD & SON,

14 TREMONT ROW,

BOSTON.

East Weymouth

Millinery Rooms.

MRS. E. A. RICHARDSON has opened all the new and desirable styles of

Spring Millinery

AND

TRIMMING GOODS,

selected with care, and adapted to the wants of her customers. Her stock comprises the usual assortment to be found in a first-class Millinery

Store, and all orders will be promptly and faithfully executed.

Grateful for past patronage, she hopes by strict attention to business and efforts to please, to secure a continuance of the same.

Commercial Street, East Weymouth.

2-15

PUMPS, Lead and Iron Pipes, constantly on hand. S. W. PRATT.

2-15

2-15

2-15

W E E D
IMPROVED SEWING MACHINE.

The very best and most simple

MACHINE IN USE.

Will do everything that can be done on any first class Machine.

For $60.00.

Including Hemmer, Feller, Braider and Quiter

Attachments. Sewing the Machine will be given by the Agent.

Also, Agent for the Whittemore and Bean

Wash Thread Machine.

AUGUSTUS T. CUSHING,

Summer St. Weymouth Landing.

Dyspepsia

and Liver

Complaint.

IMPORTANT CERTIFICATE.

Having been afflicted with chronic disease of the digestive organs, (described by physicians as enlargement of the liver and inflammation of the stomach), for more than ten years, and suffering what would be never described, without relief from the most celebrated medical treatment that could be consulted, I was induced by a physician who last attended me to try Dr. DODD'S

NERVINE AND INVIGORATOR. He had witnessed its effects, he said, in his own practice, and recommended it in the highest terms. I had about lost faith in everything; but I followed his advice, and procured the medicine. The effect inspired me with hope. I continued its use, and it improved following. I grew stronger and stronger, and suffered less and less from my troubles. This for some months until

I was relieved and needed it no longer. Dodd's

Nervine restored me to complete and sound health, and no language is able to express the gratitude I feel at being well once more. I am thoroughly cured of the horrible suffering that had made ten years of my life most wretched. No one can conceive my joy who has not experienced a like recovery. E. K. LADD.

For sale by all Druggists at One Dollar a Bottle.

De Graff's Crystal Hair Renewer.

NEW and the best Hair Preparation in the World. Nothing like it for restoring Gray and Faded Hair to its youthful color and beauty.

As a Hair Invigorator and dressing it has no equal.

It is pure and safe, leaving no discoloration on scalp or clothing.

It is delightful to use, from its neatness, freedom from offensive odors, and its sure and magical effects.

Get it everywhere at 75 cents.

DE GRAFF & CO., Proprietors, Milford, N. H.

Davis' Pain Killer

Cures Pain of all kinds. Try it

Gents Kid Gloves.

A FULL LINE

BEST FRENCH MAKE.

All Sizes and Colors.

ALSO

Gents' French Calf Driving Gloves.

ALL SIZES,

Just received at

READ'S CLOTHING STORE.

April 15.

IF YOU WANT

Best Qualities

OF

DRY

AND

FANCY

GOODS,

AT Lowest Prices.

CALL AT

E. ROSENFELD'S

South Weymouth.

Weymouth Torpedo

LABORATORY.

Z. M. ALLEN,

Manufacturer of the celebrated

U. S. G. Torpedoes.

I prepared to furnish the public with large or small packages of these Torpedoes, at the low-

P. QUANTS.
A MUSICIAN, whose nose had become distinctly colored with the red wine he was wont to imbibe, said one day to his little son at the table:
"You must eat bread, boy; bread makes your cheeks red."
The little boy replied:
"Father, what lots of bread you must have snuffed up!"

A YOUNG GENTLEMAN was escorting a young lady home, a mile or two, and not wishing to talk, he remarked:
"Mary, let's take a bus."
But Mary, blushing to the eyebrows, drew back, and with wounded modesty replied:
"Oh, George! not right here in the street!"

Advertisements.

C-C-C-C-C-C-C
Our new terms to agents before sending to any other firm, give agents 10% discount on all orders, and at the same rate for clubs of thirty, fifty, or one hundred. Dollar Sale is the oldest and largest in this city, and perfectly reliable, all orders and letters being answered the same day they are received. Don't pay the high prices charged at the stores. Buy your money by sending to us, and don't consider our goods as inferior to those before you try it. Male and female agents in all towns and cities, and in every State. High. In sending clubs, send 10c. for each name. Circulars sent free by mail. EASIE & KENDALL, 25 Bowdoin St., Boston, Mass.

AGENTS WANTED FOR DR. MARSH'S NIGHT SCENES IN THE BIBLE.
For powerful thought, elegant illustrations, elegant paper and type, beautiful binding, and rapidity of sale, this book has no equal. Agents Commission $100 per month, according to sales. Send for Circulars. Send for Circulars. ZIEGLER, McCORDY & CO., Philadelphia, Pa.

AGENTS READ THIS!
AGENTS, READ AND PEARL, WILL find it for their best interests to engage with the new book, written by ALFRED SPEER,
a large handsome volume, beautifully illustrated with steel engravings, selling very rapidly, and giving universal satisfaction. Exclusive territory and large commissions given. Liberal salaries paid to experienced and successful canvassers. Send for descriptive circulars giving full information to A. S. WHITE & CO., Publishers, Hartford, Ct.

A PLEASANT & HEALTHY BEVERAGE.
Dr. IRISH'S OTTAWA BEER.
Is a cooling and pleasant beverage, most highly quenching the thirst than any article in use, which makes it particularly sought after, as a summer drink, and only requires a fair trial to be appreciated.

SOUTHMAID & CO.
Corner Tremont and State Streets, Boston, Mass.
Are the sole agents for the sale of rights for New England.

Wanted Agents.
$750 and female, to introduce the GENTLE IMPROVED COMMON SENSE FAMILY SAVING MACHINE. This machine is a new invention, full, tuck, quilt, cord, blind, brand and embroidery in a most superior manner. Price only $18. Fully warranted for five years. We pay $100 for any machine that will sew a stronger, more beautiful, or more elastic seam than this. It makes the "Hollow" stitch, and every second stitch can be cut, and still the cloth cannot be pulled apart without marring. We pay Agents from $75 to $200 per month and expenses, or a commission from which we take the amount on each sale. For full particulars, apply to A. S. WHITE & CO., Boston, Mass., or to Mr. W. B. & C. O. Little, Boston, Mass.

Caution. Do not be imposed upon by other parties peddling of worthless cast-iron machines, under the name of "Hollow" stitch. Our is the only genuine and really practical machine manufactured.

$100 PER DAY GUARANTEED.
AGENTS to sell the Home Sewing Machine. It makes the "Hollow" stitch, and every second stitch can be cut, and still the cloth cannot be pulled apart without marring. We pay Agents from $75 to $200 per month and expenses, or a commission from which we take the amount on each sale. For full particulars, apply to A. S. WHITE & CO., Boston, Mass., or to Mr. W. B. & C. O. Little, Boston, Mass.

FREE FIRE! FREE!
Globe Fire Insurance Co., No. 4 Day Street, New York.
Great reduction in price. No. 1, $5; No. 2, $40; No. 3, $75. For full particulars, apply to A. S. WHITE & CO., Boston, Mass., or to Mr. W. B. & C. O. Little, Boston, Mass.

$5000 Salary. Address U. S. PRANO CO., N. Y.
Patents, Mann & Co., Ltd. N. Y.
Life Assurance, 21 Park Row, New York.
Twenty-three years experience in obtaining American and European Patents.
Opinions on charge. A pamphlet, 18 pages of law and information free. Address as above.

BUILDERS send for catalogue of all new 18 Architectural Books and Journals. Address J. J. BUCKLEY & CO., Publishers, Troy, N. Y., or Springfield, Ill.

Ask your Doctor or Druggist for Sweet Quinine—It equals (better) Quinine. It made only by F. STEARNS, Chemist, Detroit.

SELAT—More valuable than Gold. For particulars send two-cent stamp to AUGUSTE DUPIN, Box 102, Cincinnati, O.

George P. Rowell & Co., Advertising Agents.
No. 40 Park Row, New York.

WHAT ADVERTISERS SAY.
The firm, whose letter we print below, gave us in 1897 what was then the largest contract we had ever received for the advertising of "Lives of the Presidents." The fact that they this year renew the order and increase the amount, is the best argument that we can give that these firms are good advertising mediums.

LIPPINCOTT & BAKWELL.
Manufacturers of Axes, Shovels, Nails, &c., No. 118, WATER STREET, PITTSBURGH, PA., Dec. 3, 1898.

MENSA, Geo. P. Rowell & Co.,
Gentlemen:—One year ago with much hesitation we gave you an advertisement for one of your lists of one hundred local papers, a very short time thereafter we unhesitatingly added two more lists of the same kind.

But a short time elapsed before we were required of our every side, for "Lives of the Presidents" (see advertisement) that you had wanted to introduce the new patent. The year having now nearly gone by, we cannot but believe your system of advertising by "Lives of the Presidents" is just what we want, and we to-day forward you our first and only additional one of one hundred local papers, making a number now altogether four (4) lists of one hundred (100) local papers.

The more we talk with newspaper agents and editors, the more we are convinced that the arrangement we have made with you is preferable to any we have ever heard of. The merit of the Ad. list, of course, is obvious, but we are satisfied that by your system of advertising by "Lives of the Presidents" we have accomplished in one year what would have cost us many months to accomplish. Respectfully, LIPPINCOTT & BAKWELL.

Of the Philadelphia from the National Publishing Co., of Philadelphia, may be taken as an answer to those who inquire if these "Lives" can really be good advertising mediums.

NATIONAL PUBLISHING COMPANY.
No. 20 STATE STREET, NEW YORK.
J. B. JONES, President.
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 10, 1898.

MENSA, Geo. P. Rowell & Co.,
Gentlemen:—It is more than three years since we began advertising in your "Lives of the Presidents" each, and in that time have given "The Lives System," as originated by you, a thorough trial, and we can now say it is the cheapest and best general advertising medium we have any knowledge of.

We have tried every possible mode of advertising, and have found that the "Lives System" is the best, and have no hesitation in saying that your "Lives" have paid us 25 per cent. better than any other way.

NATIONAL PUBLISHING CO.
SEND FOR OUR 24 PAGE CIRCULAR which contains: A List of over One Thousand Newspapers, with full advertising rates, and prices shown, advertising rates, and full and complete information on the subject of advertising. Free for a cent stamp. Address: GEO. P. ROWELL & CO., Advertising Agents, 40 Park Row, N. Y.

Widening of Hanover Street.
IMPORTANT
TO BUYERS OF CARPETS.
Anticipating that our business will be interrupted while the widening of Hanover Street is in progress, we shall endeavor to reduce our stock by offering Goods at the following

POPULAR PRICES:
SCOTCH CARPETS, per Yard.....30c.
HEAVY COTTAAGE CARPETS.....45c.
HEAVY COTTAAGE CARPETS, (Brussels Patterns).....20c.
INGRAIN CARPETS.....75c.
FINE WOOL CARPETS.....90c.
EXTRA FINE WOOL CARPETS, Bright Colors, warranted free from Gotton or Shoddy.....$1.10
SUPERFINE WOOL CARPETS.....1.25
THIRTYEIGHT CARPETS, (all wool).....1.00
GENTLE ENGLISH BRUSSELS TAP-ENTRY.....1.30

OIL CLOTHS.
2 to 15 feet wide.
White, Colored and Fancy.
China Matting.
Together with a large assortment of

Window Shades
AT PROPORTIONATELY LOW PRICES.
Goods cheerfully shown. Orders by mail will receive prompt attention.

Learnard & Hartley,
AT THE OLD STAND,
134 Hanover St. and 78 and 80 Union St.,
BOSTON. 2-5

The Question of the Hour.
LOOK! OBSERVE AND REFLECT.
ON MAY 15th
We transferred our entire Wholesale Stock, consisting of a General Assortment of

Gents', Ladies', Misses', Boys', Youths', and Children's Boots and Shoes,
TO OUR
Retail Store,
14 Tremont Row, - - - Boston.

Where during the remainder of the month, and through the month of June, they will be sold to our retail customers as low as BOOTS AND SHOES can be bought at any Wholesale

COMPETITION! COMPETITION!
Prices Low, Lower, Lowest.
Read the Price-List and Ponder.
Gents' Fine French Calf Sewed Boots, $8.00
Gents' Fine French Calf Sewed Boots, 7.00
Gents' Fine French Calf Boots, 6.00
Gents' Fine French Calf Boots, 5.00
Gents' Fine French Calf Boots, 4.00
Gents' Fine French Calf Boots, 3.50
Gents' Fine French Calf Boots, 3.00
Gents' Fine French Calf Boots, 2.50
Gents' Fine French Calf Boots, 2.00
Gents' Fine French Calf Boots, 1.50
Gents' Fine French Calf Boots, 1.00
Gents' Fine French Calf Boots, .50

With a splendid assortment of every kind of Gents' Balloons, French Tan, Strap Shoes, Brogue, Ladies' Serge Boots of all styles, Buckskin Congress for tender feet, Kip Boots, Gents' Boots and Cow-Boys Boots, making

The Most Extensive STOCK OF GENTS' BOOTS AND SHOES Ever offered at retail in the United States.

LADIES' STOCK,
Consisting of French Kid Boots, Bronze Kid Boots, every style of Serge Boots, French Calf Boots, Goat Boots,

LADIES' SERGE BUTTON BOOTS, $2.00
LADIES' SERGE BUTTON BOOTS, $1.50
LADIES' CONGRESS BOOTS, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $2.75, $3.00
LADIES' LEATHER POLISH, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00
LADIES' FRENCH Calf CONGRESS, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50
LADIES' SERGE BALLOONS, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00
LADIES' GOAT POLISH, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50
LADIES' SERGE BUTTON BOOTS, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00
LADIES' KID BUCKINS, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50
LADIES' SLIPPERS, 60c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50
LADIES' WHITE KID SLIPPERS, French heel, $2.00

Remember!
That our whole stock will be at the disposal of our

Retail Customers.
Store open from 6 A.M. till 7 P.M. Saturdays 11 P.M.

JOHN MANSFIELD & SON,
14 TREMONT ROW, BOSTON. 4-7
East Weymouth

Millinery Rooms.
MRS. E. A. RICHARDSON has opened all the new and desirable styles of

Spring Millinery
AND
TRIMMING GOODS.
selected with care, and adapted to the wants of customers. Her stock comprises the usual assortment to be found in a first-class Millinery Store, and all orders will be promptly and faithfully executed.

Grateful for past patronage, she hopes by strict attention to dress and efforts to please, to secure a continuance of the same.

Commercial Street, East Weymouth. 2-10

WEED IMPROVED SEWING MACHINE.
The very best and most simple MACHINE IN USE.
Will do everything that can be done on any first class Machine.

For $60.00.
Including Hemmer, Feller, Binder and Quilt Foot instructions in running the Machine will be given by the Agent.
Also, Agent for the Whittemore & Bean Wax Thread Machine.
AUGUSTUS T. CHISHAM, Summer St., Weymouth Landing.

Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint.
IMPORTANT CERTIFICATE.
Having been afflicted with chronic disease of the digestive organs, (described by physicians as enlargement of the liver and inflammation of the stomach,) for more than ten years, and suffering what would be never described, without relief from the most celebrated medical skill that could be consulted, I was induced by the physician who last attended me, to try Dr. J. C. KINGSLEY'S AND INVIGORATOR. He had witnessed, and could recommend it in the highest terms. I had about lost faith in anything, but I followed his advice, and prepared the medicine. The effect inspired me with hope. I continued its use, and still improved, following it up. I grew stronger and stronger, and suffered less and less from my troubles. This for some months I was relieved and needed no longer Dr. J. C. KINGSLEY'S AND INVIGORATOR. I was restored to me to complete and sound health, and no language is able to express my gratitude for what I have received. I am now thoroughly cured of the horrible suffering that had afflicted me for ten years. I have not experienced a day since I have not been cured. No one can conceive my joy who has not experienced a like recovery. E. R. LEBBY, S. East, Minn.

For sale by all Druggists at One Dollar a Bottle.

De Graff's Crystal Hair Restorer.
NEW and the best Hair Preparation in the world. Nothing like it for restoring Gray and Faded Hair to its youthful color and beauty. As a Hair Restorer and Dressing it has no equal. It is pure and water, leaving no discoloration on the scalp or clothing. It is delicate to use, from its pleasantness, freedom from offensive odors, and its safe and magical effects. It is sold everywhere at 75 cents. E. R. GRAFF & CO., Proprietors, Milford, N. H.

Davis Pain Killer.
Cures Pain of all kinds. Try it.
Gents' Kid Gloves.
A FULL LINE
BEST FRENCH MAKE.
All Sizes and Colors.

READ'S CLOTHING STORE.
April 15.

IF YOU WANT Best Qualities
OF
DRY AND FANCY GOODS,
AT
Lowest Prices,
CALL AT
E. ROSENFELD'S
South Weymouth.

Weymouth Torpedo LABORATORY.
Z. M. ALLEN, Manufacturer of the celebrated

U. S. G. Torpedoes,
Is prepared to furnish the public with large and small packages of these Torpedoes, at the lowest market rates.

Ladies' Serge Congress, Polish and Button Boots, at prices ranging from $1.50 to $4.00, may be found at the store of
J. CRANE & SON.

IMPORTANT TO MUSIC TEACHERS.
The latest and most complete System of Instruction for Piano and Violin.

An entirely new Method, distinct from, and every way superior to any previous work by the same author.

Clark's New Method for Reed Organs, by WILLIAM H. CLARK.

Containing the most simple, thorough and Progressive Exercises, Beautiful Selections and Voluntarys ever published.

Regularly superintended at other Methods of Instruction.

Books in Board, $2.50. Sent post paid on receipt of price. O. DITSON & CO., 277 Washington Street, Boston. C. H. DITSON, 277 Washington Street, Boston.

$2 Packed with each Gross.
Kingsley's Iron Handcuffs.
Are the best handcuffs in the world. This is a bold statement, but it is a fact. They are made of the best material, and are so constructed that they are never broken. They are so made that they will never rust. They are so made that they will never become loose. They are so made that they will never become tight. They are so made that they will never become uncomfortable. They are so made that they will never become dangerous. They are so made that they will never become a nuisance. They are so made that they will never become a curse. They are so made that they will never become a shame. They are so made that they will never become a disgrace. They are so made that they will never become a blot on the name of Kingsley. They are so made that they will never become a stain on the name of Kingsley. They are so made that they will never become a mark of dishonor. They are so made that they will never become a badge of infamy. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of degradation. They are so made that they will never become a token of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a sign of scorn. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are so made that they will never become a mark of derision. They are so made that they will never become a symbol of mockery. They are so made that they will never become a token of ridicule. They are so made that they will never become a sign of contempt. They are

The Weymouth Weekly Gazette.

VOL. 3.

WEYMOUTH, MASS., FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1869.

NO. 7

VISIT
C. S. WILLIAMS'
Dry Goods and Clothing Store,
And examine the assortment of Goods which are now being offered to you to me and which cannot fail to suit all in want of GOOD STYLISH GOODS,
AT REASONABLE PRICES.

Having now in store a good variety of

DRESS GOODS,

INCLUDING
Black Alpaca,
Mohairs,
All-Wool Delaines,
All-Wool Plaids,
Robes de Voyage,
Wash Poplins,

And a large variety of other popular styles.
We have also on our TWENTY-FIVE CENT DRESS GOODS COUNTER a good display of DRESS GOODS, such as are usually sold for Thirty-seven to Forty cents, which we are selling at the low price of Twenty-five cents per yard; and all would do well to call and examine the goods as to quality and price.
A large variety of

SHAWLS,

At Very Low Prices.

Balmoral Skirts,
STAMPED SKIRTS,
All the late styles of Hoop Skirts,
Corsets, &c.

Merino and other Best Prints, 12 1/2 Cents.

A large assortment of HOSIERY AND GLOVES, at popular prices.
In the

CLOTHING DEPARTMENT,

We have now a large assortment of Fashionable and well-made Clothing, suitable for all ages and for all occasions, to which we invite the attention of all, confident that we can suit as to quality and price.
We have a fine display of Grecian Suits, a good variety of Jackets and Pants; Coats Suits in great variety; Matched Suits, with Sack or English Walking Coats; all-wool Matched Suits for Men, $13; Tricot Suits, at very reasonable prices.

FURNISHING GOODS,

OF ALL THE LATE STYLES;

Umbrellas, Trunks, Valises, &c.

We have also the Celebrated Bicycle Collar, which we introduced a few months ago, since which time it has taken the lead of all others, as we predicted at the start,—for worth is recognized everywhere; a splendid assortment of

HATS AND CAPS;

A very large variety of Straw Hats; a number of styles of Panama Hats; and they will be sold for much less than the usual price.

If you wish to purchase your Dry Goods and Clothing where they can, and will, sell cheap, and where you can find

A Good Assortment,

And can rely on what they tell you, don't fail to visit

C. S. WILLIAMS, Weymouth Landing,

where all goods are purchased for cash; and as their expenses are light in proportion to their sales, they can and do sell for prices that suit the public.

We are always pleased to show our Goods,

Knowing that an inspection of the goods and prices, is all we have to do to convince all that we are still determined to keep the name we have gained, for selling goods at lowest prices.

C. S. WILLIAMS

WEYMOUTH LANDING.

Original Serial.

Grace Waldron,

—OR—
THE FALSE DAUGHTER.

A TALE OF NEW YORK.

CHAPTER XII.

In the family of Frederic Waldron there resided a woman named Hester Granger—Miss Granger was called, and she held a position somewhat between an upper servant and a house-keeper. She was in the service of Mrs. Waldron at the time of her sudden disappearance, and she was necessarily in Mr. Waldron's confidence, which for years she did not betray. When little Grace so mysteriously made her appearance, Hester Granger was appointed nurse to the child, and she had more to do with her than she had with any other child. At the time Hester Granger entered the family of Mr. Waldron, she was a comely young woman of about five and twenty years; but as time passed on she became a sour old maid, and by endeavoring to dictate to Grace in many things which the young girl's proud spirit resented, she had provoked her most intense dislike, and as Grace grew to young ladyhood there were many sharp words between them. Formerly Miss Granger always yielded and apologized for she had no desire to lose her very comfortable home, nor to run the risk of obtaining another; but of late there had been a decided change in her manner, and several times when her young mistress had requested to have something done she had answered, "That was for the servants to do," and once, when Grace caught the meaning of her words, some people had better not hold their heads so high; "pride may have a fall," Grace Waldron would not condescend to ask an explanation; but to the proud and beautiful girl there was an explanation to those words which would wring her heart well nigh breaking.

One evening, several weeks after Victor Stanhope had left New York, Hester Granger looked into the library where Grace sat reading and said, "If you please Miss Grace, I wish to go out this evening."

"Why, Granger—you know you cannot go," answered Grace, "I told you this morning that that skirt of mine must be done so I can wear it tomorrow, and you have just told Ellen she must stay away this evening, so you must stay at home."

Hester Granger had purposely given leave to Ellen, Grace's particular maid, to go out, as it was her wish to make Grace angry, in order to justify to herself the work she had to do; and she replied, "I shall go, Miss Grace, without it," and with her leave then without it, and she turned, but Grace stopped her.

"Go if you please, Hester Granger; I have had no choice enough from you lately; but if you do leave this house, you will never leave it to return to it," Hester Granger perfectly quivered with anger, and she was about to reply when the thought flashed through her mind that to accomplish her ends she must remain in her present position. No one better than she knew how to act the hypocrite, therefore she turned and said meekly: "Ah! Miss Grace, I must do as you say; I could not find another home like this; but your kind heart would not allow you to refuse me," and she had turned from Grace and hid her face apparently in deep emotion, but she merely to hide her shame at the falsehood she was about to tell. "My sister's child is lying very low," she continued, "and I may never see my darling little Alice alive again; and she gave a deep sob."

Grace Waldron was as quick to sympathize as she was to anger and she exclaimed, "Hester!" (she sometimes called her by her first name) "forgive me, I did not know you desired to go out; you had told me so at first I should have made no objection. Forgive me if I have hurt your feelings; you shall go and I can do without my skirt." And she placed her beautiful hand affectionately upon Hester Granger's arm.

For one moment, the hypocrite hesitated as she remembered the object which took her from home that night; but she was already too deeply committed and she also knew the happiness of the girl before her was already doomed; so she merely said, "Thank you, Miss Grace, this is just like you; and I will never forget your kindness," and, miserable hypocrite that she was, she left the room with a sigh and a low bow. We must follow her and leave Grace Waldron in happy unconsciousness of the plot which was ripening to destroy her peace.

Hester Granger hurried from the house and wended her way through the dimly lighted streets, till she passed on the sidewalk before the entrance to a cellar. She very quickly descended the dilapidated steps, gently gave three taps upon the door, which was immediately partially, and very cautiously, opened, and she entered the same cellar which had been described in the third chapter of our story. The younger woman was not there, but the other with her keen gray eyes and sunken cheeks was, and seizing Hester Granger's arm she asked, "What news do you bring me—am I any nearer my revenge?"

"Yes! I have much to tell you; but you must be more quiet and let me go on my own way. In the first place Victor Stanhope—"

"I know all about Victor Stanhope, he is as true as steel to this Grace, and he has been forced to leave her; but I have proof; I have proof—and, Granger, you will not fail me."

"No! I will not fail you, for you have the right,"—"And I shall have my reward," she added to herself, for Miss Granger, like a very large number of persons, had an eye to her own interests.

The reader has doubtless already surmised that this gray haired woman with the sunken cheeks and keen half starved eyes, was the once beautiful Florence Waldron, Frederic's long lost wife, who twenty years before, left his home a lovely, fascinating woman; but who, driven insane by his cruel, taunting words, had formed a plan and nursed a spirit of revenge in her madness which half served to keep life in her attenuated frame, and which was calculated to strike her husband where all of his love was centered. Florence, her own child, she would not part with; and she, in one way and another managed to give her some education, although often very often both had gone suppers to bed, and Florence was by nature very beautiful. But who then was Grace Waldron?

As Hester Granger had said, she had a good deal to tell. She knew, though somewhat recently, the arrangement between her and Grace, and she knew that Hester Granger had a way, a noiseless cat-like way of being close to key-locks when what she wanted to hear was to be heard, and she knew by heart, that had said to Grace about her daughter being intended for Harry Liston, Miss Hester Granger thought a great deal of Harry Liston, for he understood the art of bribery and he was playing for a very heavy stake; he had bought his way, in the first place, into favor with the house-keeper, Harry Liston, and he had met, while that Grace was not the true heiress, as to Frederic Waldron's large fortune, but that he did not know that the true heiress lived, for Hester Granger was too shrewd to tell all her wares for sale at once; and while Harry Liston was making his calculations to buy his way, he was very quietly draining his pockets, intending to reserve for the great and final draft on them, the information in regard to Florence, the true and only child of Frederic Waldron.

The mother, of course, had known nothing of her proposed disposition of her daughter's hand, as the arrangement between her husband and the elder Mr. Liston was not made till long after she had left that husband's home; but when Hester Granger related to her the conversation which she overheard and more over represented Harry Liston to be rich, handsome and clever, she eagerly caught at the bait, saying, "Yes, Frederic Waldron's daughter shall marry Mr. Liston. I have promised her she shall be a fine lady and ride in her carriage, and she shall."

Hester Granger, the cool, calculating woman, was more than a match for Frederic Waldron's poor, half crazy wife, and while Florence Waldron thought she was making a tool of her old servant, that servant knew she was making a tool of her former mistress. But there were many things which Hester Granger did not know, and had she known more, she would have been less anxious to dispose Grace Waldron.

When Florence Waldron first left her home, she had no motive save to escape from him who had accused her of dishonor. She had intended, as she said, to go to her father, but instead of doing so, she wandered and then, one day, a man, when she was taken care of by a man, a carpenter named Hanlon, who partly from pity and partly from curiosity, took her to his house; and there the young Florence was born. Hanlon and wife had an infant daughter born but a few days before, and the circumstance suggested to Florence Waldron a scheme of revenge which she succeeded in commencing, for the Hanlons were very poor and were readily induced, for a small sum of money and promise that their child should be brought up to wealth and position, to part with it; and it was that child, the daughter of a poor mechanic, on whom Frederic Waldron had lavished his wealth and his love.

When Florence recovered from her delirium, she gave her name to Hanlon and his wife and made them sign a paper properly witnessed, stating that she was the wife of Frederic Waldron, was on a certain date delivered of a female child, and she also had the child christened by her own name and took a certificate from the clergyman who officiated that he had performed the ceremony. Hanlon and his wife were very ready to do as they were asked; in fact they did not know who she really was, and as they scarcely ever read a newspaper they were not in the way of learning of the heavy reward which was offered for the discovery of their guest; and when, in a few days she disappeared as mysteriously as she arrived, they made no effort to find her, and for years before they heard of the lady and her child, or of their own daughter, and the affair was never mentioned by either to any one else. But what was very strange, John Hanlon's wife was an own sister to Hester Granger; and therefore, although she was entirely ignorant of the fact, it was her own niece against whom she was plotting.

Florence Waldron was insane, but insane on one subject. She had determined to revenge herself upon her husband by striking him in his dearest affection, as the time approached for the consummation of her desire, it became necessary that she should have assistance. She had sought and found Hester Granger, whose hate for Grace was a stimulus to silence when her former mistress made herself known to her. By her, Florence was frequently advised of what Stanhope's love for Grace, and how he had been scorned, but she had never betrayed who Grace was, and all Hester Granger knew in regard to it was that Grace was not Frederic Waldron's child. She had learned enough, though, to serve her own ends, and she had learned in her own mind that she and no other, should tell Harry Liston the secret in regard to whom he should claim through Frederic Waldron's agreement with his father as his future bride.

To this end Hester Granger, "Mrs. Waldron," (it made Florence start to be called by that name,) I know Mr. Liston well; you have thus far confided in me, confide in me still, and when the proper time comes let me make known to him who is the one his father's wish would have him marry. You cannot at present approach him; I can, and I will let him see you, he may marry Grace, and, deceived himself, be lost to your daughter forever."

Hester Granger knew from the conversation she had listened to between Grace Waldron and her father, that there was little danger that Grace would give her consent to a hasty marriage. She did not know that Grace Waldron with her whole heart now loved Victor Stanhope, but she believed, and she was right in her belief, that Harry Liston desired not so much Grace Waldron's love as her fortune. She had never told him there was a true heiress to Frederic Waldron's wealth, and she meant to make him pay for meddling in her marriage with the false daughter and throwing the true one in his way.

In all her conferences with Mrs. Waldron Hester Granger had never been able to draw from her who the one known as Grace Waldron really was. John Hanlon had always been dissipated and had therefore always been very poor; and Hester Granger was not one to encourage the confidence of poor relations; and since her marriage John Hanlon's wife had seen and known nothing of her sister Hester. Hester Granger, however, thought that she had been for some time in steady communication with Mrs. Waldron. On every occasion that she had met, the girl was away. But she never doubted the story she had heard, and at present, for her own interest, the secret was safe with her.

When she left the cellar she went, as a matter of form to see her sister and poor little sick Alice; for Hester Granger was very cautious, and would not for any consideration be detected in a falsehood, but she did feel a slight twinge of conscience when she arrived at home, Grace, who had not returned, enquired about the sick child, and seemed so truly pleased to hear that it was much better. She never faltered, however, in her purpose; and in time, Harry Liston heard from her lips who was Frederic Waldron's daughter, though he paid heavily for the information. He was promised more when his wishes should be accomplished. She had given a solemn promise not to reveal the secret, but Mrs. Waldron had given her consent in order to prevent Harry Liston from listening to his marriage with Grace. Many weeks passed, however, before the story was told him, and in the meanwhile the one who loved Grace Waldron was far away and unable to assist her.

THE ENGINE DRIVER'S STORY.

Our's is a new line—a very new one—running through miles of unsettled country, where it's no wonderful thing to make out in the far distance half-a-dozen Indians galloping along with their hair and blanket streaming out behind; and more than once I've wondered how it would be if one of those painted beauties was to collect his friends, and pull up to him. "You my word, it's about as sensational a feeling as can come over you. Talk about your hair streaming out, why, there's a perceptible crowding for all the world as if some one was pouring canary-seed through the roots. And, mind you, to-morrow and to-morrow night, I'll be sure to be heard of in this very day, so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems very horrible, no doubt, and to belong to the past; but place every day so that your hair streaming out and your blanket streaming out, and your Sioux or Pawnee warrior coat displaying his green and bloody scalp torn from the heads of the hated whites by his treacherous hand. Seems Billiard Table for Sale.

For sale at a bargain, a very nice four pocket Billiard Table, of J. E. Shaw's manufacture, in prime running order.
Apply to
H. J. SHAW,
100 Weymouth St., Weymouth.
SOUTH WEYMOUTH
Carriage Depot.

W. M. BURRELL, at his Stable, Pleasant street, South Weymouth, will keep constantly on hand (CARriages of all kinds, new and second hand. Also Harnesses of all kinds.
Second-hand Carriages and Harnesses taken in exchange for new.
Also, Horses bought and sold. 2-14.

Boots and Shoes.
At lowest possible prices
FOR CASH!
Weymouth Landing Boot and Shoe Store,
First Building South of the Depot.

Dorick White
Is prepared to offer to the public of Weymouth and vicinity a Large Stock of First Class and other qualities of Men's, Women's, Misses and Children's COMMON AND FANCY

Leather and Cloth,
BOOTS AND SHOES,
At prices which cannot be surpassed in this vicinity. 2-14

"NEW STAND."
GROCERY, Kitchen Furnishing, Stove Store.

C. O. RADCLIFF,
At his new stand on Washington street, (Store formerly occupied by John O. Foxe), will continue to offer the public a superior quality of

GROCERIES,
At Lowest Possible Prices for Cash.
Coffee, Tea, Spices, Flour, Meal,
Butter, Cheese, Eggs, Lard, Fish, Sugars, Molasses, Oils, Tobacco, Cigars, in fact, everything usually kept in first-class
groceries.

Goods Delivered Promptly.
In connection with this branch of business he will continue the

Stove & Kitchen Furnishing Business, and also keep a good assortment of GLASS, TIN, WOODEN, & BR-TANNIA WARES,

Silver Plated Ware, Crockery Ware,
including original packages from the importers,
and all kinds of common ware, at the lowest CASH PRICES.

"NEW STAND."
C. O. RADCLIFF,
ASK YOUR GROCER FOR AZURENE.

Life and Fire Insurance.
Connecticut General Life Insurance Co.,
HARTFORD, CONN.
Life Insurance.
Assets, April 1, 1898, $622,951.33
Hon. John E. Sanford, Insurance Commissioner, in a letter dated Oct. 19, 1898, makes security furnished policyholders equal to $200,000 Assets, $200,000 to reach $100,000 of present liability. Including Stock Notes, the ratio is $450 to each $100.
Non-Foreclosing and Endowment Policies and Annuities granted on both Mutual and Stock plans. ALFRED LAWS, Agent.
32-12.

Sewing Machines. Mattresses.
THOSE IN WANT OF THE BEST FAMILY SEWING MACHINES, Will do well to try the
NEW SINGER MACHINE.

This Machine will do all the different varieties of work done on Shuttle Machines, as well as can be done on any Family Machine, and more of it. It will run faster, more power, with less trouble and expense than any other Family Machine. It is The most Durable, Economical and Practical Machine in the Market.
Any person wishing to purchase a Machine, can have one of these delivered at their residence, with the privilege of keeping it on trial one week, by applying to the subscriber by mail or otherwise.
N. B. Instructions given in working the Machine. H. W. FEAR, ACT.
MAIN STREET, - - - SOUTH WEYMOUTH.
52-12

ALL KINDS OF Wringers repaired at short notice, at
S. W. PRATT'S
DOMESTICS, FLANNELS, DENIMS, Ties, Linens and Woollens, &c. in great variety, at
E. ROSENFIELD'S,
South Weymouth.

$2 Packed with each Gross.
Kingsley's Iron Mandrake Pills
Are the best cathartic in the world. This is a solid statement, but it is a fact. They cure Liver complaint, Headache, Constipation, Piles, Stomach ache, Biliousness, &c. Try them. Ladies who are troubled with constipation will be pleased with their effect. One Pill at night will relieve them.
The formula is approved by the profession.
Price 25 cents. Sold by all Druggists. Call for Kingsley's Iron Mandrake Pills. G. C. GOOD, WIN & CO., Agents, Boston. 2-14
C. B. Kingsley, Northampton, Mass.

THE PLACE WHERE People should Buy Seasonable Goods
AT LOW FIGURES
IS AT HENRY LOUD'S,
Broad street,
EAST WEYMOUTH,
WHERE MAY BE FOUND
Choice Assortment of DRESS GOODS, FLANNELS, COTTONS, PRINTS, HOSIERY,
SHAWLS,
Balmoral Skirts,
Hoop "Corsets.

AND FANCY GOODS AND NOTIONS.

IN THE CLOTHING Department,
A SPLENDID STOCK, CONSISTING OF BOYS' SUITS,
SACK AND PROCK COATS
PANTS AND VESTS, HATS AND CAPS,
BOOTS AND SHOES,
And a general assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods.

Also,
FURNITURE, Feathers, Curtains,
OIL AND STRAW CARPETINGS,
&c. &c.
AND A NEW AND CHOICE ASSORTMENT OF Paper Hangings.

O. G.
Just received at HENRY LOUD'S, 5,000 of the celebrated Ogee Collars,
which are the best fitting and most perfect collars ever offered to the public. For sale in any quantity at
H. LOUD'S,
East Weymouth.

Builders' HARDWARE, IRON SINKS,
&c., &c.,
FOR SALE BY
L. TUOK, - - - South Weymouth.

To that Class of People who prefer a
Custom Made Boot or Shoe,
We would state that we now have the facilities for making such in a thorough and satisfactory manner.

Our Stock is of the
FIRST QUALITY
AND CONSISTS OF
French Calf, Glove Calf,
GOAT, KID & SERGE.
We have made several Pairs of Ladies' and Misses' Boot,
For persons in this place
Who Were Well Pleased with the Style, Stock and Work.
We ask for your patronage.

The Largest Assortment of Glass Ware
In town, and at lowest prices, for sale by
L. TUOK, South Weymouth.

The Universal
CLOTHES WRINGER, WITH Improved Double Gear,
and
Doty's Clothes Washer,
May be found at L. TUOK'S, South Weymouth.

One of the most Pleasant Sensations experienced in a lifetime is when you are eating one of Copeland's Ice Creams.
AT THE
ST. CHARLES RESTAURANT,
Washington Square, Weymouth.

These Creams are direct from the celebrated manufacturers of Charles Copeland. This fact is a sufficient guarantee that they are all right. Call and see for yourselves.
Refreshments at all hours of the day and evening.

Spades, Shovels, Hoes, Axes,
and other
AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS,
For sale by L. TUOK, South Weymouth.

26 ACRES OF LAND
WITH A
Small Orchard for Sale.
13 ACRES of Pasturing and Meadow Land, with a small Orchard in bearing and Also, about 13 Acres of Woodland, 13 years growth. All within three minutes walk of Plymouth Turnpike, on Torrey's Lane. Terms reasonable.
Also, a large house-lot on Plymouth Turnpike, with a cellar on the same. (Cellar and Lot for $120.) Apply to
ASA B. WALES,
Weymouth Landing.

Wm. B. Hersey,
Painter, Glazier,
and FIBER PLASTER,
Paints and Varnish for sale.
Main Street, South Weymouth.
1-21

Miss L. Hardy, FASHIONABLE
MILLINERY
AND DRESS MAKING,
Over Brown's Drug Store.
Machine work and Ladies' furnishing goods
done in the neatest possible manner.
South Weymouth, May 7, 1898. 1-13

OUT OF SORTS.
Take DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S SHERRY WINE BITTERS—the most medicinal in the market. Established in 1868. 46-10

Dr. Warren's Bilious Bitters.
For Purifying the Blood, curing Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Biliousness, Headache, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, and all spring complaints, for cleansing, strengthening, invigorating and regulating the human system, his no equal in the world. Sold by all Druggists.
BUTR & PERLEY, Wholesale Druggists, General Agents, 29 Tremont street, Boston. 4-17

Burr's Patent Nursing Bottle.
The most perfect and convenient Nursing Bottle in the world. We supply the trade with all parts of the Bottle separately when required, including Burr's Silver Wire Brush, which is of invaluable value to the infant. The bottle is perfectly sweet and free from acid, especially in warm weather. Price of Bottle, 10 cts.
BUTR & PERLEY, successors to M. B. Burr
Co., Wholesale Druggists, 29 Tremont street, Boston, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. 4-17

SELECTMEN'S NOTICE.
THE Selectmen of Weymouth hereby give notice that they will be in session at the Town House on the first Monday of each month, and at the Town House on every other Monday
during the year, from two to four o'clock P. M.
N. B.—A full list of PALMERS' NEW DOUBLE YOKES, in all grades and prices, just received, to which we would call the attention of the trade.
S. W. PRATT, Sole Agent.
46-10

QUINCY MARBLE WORKS.
THE Proprietor would respectfully announce that he has enlarged his premises by the addition of a WAREHOUSE, where every variety of Monumental Work, from the simplest Grave Stone
to the most costly and elegant TABLET, may be seen finished and ready for lettering.
All persons needing such, are invited to call
and judge for themselves. We have no agent,
and depend entirely on the well known character of the place for good work and honest dealing, for success.
Near Rail Road Depot, South Quincy, Mass.
24-14 P. MCGRATH, Proprietor.

What is it?
AZURENE!
FOUTZ'S
CELEBRATED
HORSE AND CATTLE POWDERS.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly refresh, invigorate, and strengthen the system, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.
It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, Glanders, Yellow Fever, Hay Fever, Colic, Stomach
Distress, Fever, Founder, Loss of Appetite, and VITAL ENERGY, &c. It is improved by the addition of apple-juice, and gives a smooth
and glossy skin, and renders the animal healthy and strong.
In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, keeps their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.
To keep off Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a preventive against Ringworm,
Scald, and other skin diseases.
It has been proved by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk,
and to increase twenty per cent
and entirely prevent it. It gives a certain preventive and cure for
the Hog Cholera.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Cough, Throat
in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this animal acts as a specific. By mixing from one-half a paper to a paper
in a barrel of feed, the above disease will be eradicated or entirely prevented. It gives a certain preventive and cure for
the Hog Cholera.

DAVID E. FOUTZ, Proprietor,
Baltimore, Md.
For sale by Druggists and Storekeepers throughout the United States, Canada and South America.

THE GRAND
PEACE JUBILEE!
LEWIS RICH & CO.
Can beat the Boston Dollar Stores
ALL OUT.

They are this week opening a full assortment of DRY GOODS,
WOOLENS, CARPETINGS,
HOSIERY, GLOVES,
AND FANCY GOODS,
AT VERY LOW PRICES.

Common Prints, 6 1-4 cts.
Good Prints, 10 "
Merrimacks and other best makes, 12 1-2 cts.
A job lot of 12 1-2 cent Prints, slightly damaged, selling for 9 cts.
Best DeLaines from 17 to 20 cts.
Splendid line of double width Black and Colored Alpaca, 25 cts.
Heavy Poplin Alpaca, 25 cts.
Fine Tucked and Fancy Skirts, $1.00
All Linen Handkerchiefs, 8 1-3 cts.
Spool Cotton, 1 ct., 2 cts., 4 cts., and 8 cts.

Everything else equally cheap.
We also have a large variety of cheap, medium and fine
WOOLENS
For Men's and Boys' Wear.

LARGE STOCK OF DOMESTIC GOODS,
FLANNELS, SHAWLS,
Hoop Skirts, Corsets, White Goods, Linens,
&c. &c.

One of our partners, who spends his whole time in Boston and New York markets, has just purchased an assorted lot of merchandise, including some
VERY NICE THINGS IN Glass-Ware, Silver-Plated Ware,
CUTLERY, ALBUMS, CL OKS,
JEWELRY, &c.

At very much under the Regular Prices, and they will be SOLD CHEAP.
We intend always to keep a nice assortment of goods, sell them at low rates, have one price, and use everybody well.

All are kindly invited to examine our stock
LEWIS RICH & CO.
Weymouth Landing, April 16, 1898.

THE LARGEST STOCK
—OF—
PAPER AND LINEN COLLARS, CUFFS
—AND—DRESS SHIRTS
—IN—
NEW ENGLAND,
In all of the newest and most desirable styles,
may be found at
CHARLES A. NOYES & CO'S,
Nos. 72 Summer and 23 Otis Sts.,
BOSTON.

C. A. N. & CO., making this line of goods a specialty, and being Agents for the Manufacturers, are enabled to supply the trade in any quantity, and on the most favorable terms.
N. B.—A full line of PALMERS' NEW DOUBLE YOKES, in all grades and prices, just received, to which we would call the attention of the trade.
S. W. PRATT, Sole Agent.
46-10

QUINCY MARBLE WORKS.
THE Proprietor would respectfully announce
that he has enlarged his premises by the addition of a WAREHOUSE, where every variety
of Monumental Work, from the simplest Grave Stone
to the most costly and elegant TABLET, may be seen finished and ready for lettering.
All persons needing such, are invited to call
and judge for themselves. We have no agent,
and depend entirely on the well known character of the place for good work and honest dealing, for success.
Near Rail Road Depot, South Quincy, Mass.
24-14 P. MCGRATH, Proprietor.

What is it?
AZURENE!
FOUTZ'S
CELEBRATED
HORSE AND CATTLE POWDERS.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly refresh, invigorate, and strengthen
the system, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.
It is a sure preventive of all
diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG
FEVER, Glanders, Yellow Fever, Hay Fever, Colic, Stomach
Distress, Fever, Founder, Loss of Appetite, and VITAL ENERGY, &c. It is improved by the addition of
apple-juice, and gives a smooth
and glossy skin, and renders the animal healthy and strong.
In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite,
keeps their hide, and makes them thrive much
faster.
To keep off Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a preventive against Ringworm,
Scald, and other skin diseases.
It has been
proved by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk,
and to increase twenty per cent
and entirely prevent it. It gives a certain preventive and cure for
the Hog Cholera.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Cough, Throat
in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this animal acts as a specific. By mixing
from one-half a paper to a paper
in a barrel of feed, the above
disease will be eradicated or entirely prevented. It gives a certain preventive and cure for
the Hog Cholera.

DAVID E. FOUTZ, Proprietor,
Baltimore, Md.
For sale by Druggists and Storekeepers throughout the United States, Canada and South America.

THE GRAND
PEACE JUBILEE!
LEWIS RICH & CO.
Can beat the Boston Dollar Stores
ALL OUT.

They are this week opening a full assortment of DRY GOODS,
WOOLENS, CARPETINGS,
HOSIERY, GLOVES,
AND FANCY GOODS,
AT VERY LOW PRICES.

Common Prints, 6 1-4 cts.
Good Prints, 10 "
Merrimacks and other best makes, 12 1-2 cts.
A job lot of 12 1-2 cent Prints, slightly damaged, selling for 9 cts.
Best DeLaines from 17 to 20 cts.
Splendid line of double width Black and Colored Alpaca, 25 cts.
Heavy Poplin Alpaca, 25 cts.
Fine Tucked and Fancy Skirts, $1.00
All Linen Handkerchiefs, 8 1-3 cts.
Spool Cotton, 1 ct., 2 cts., 4 cts., and 8 cts.

Everything else equally cheap.
We also have a large variety of cheap, medium and fine
WOOLENS
For Men's and Boys' Wear.

LARGE STOCK OF DOMESTIC GOODS,
FLANNELS, SHAWLS,
Hoop Skirts, Corsets, White Goods, Linens,
&c. &c.

One of our partners, who spends his whole time in Boston and New York markets, has just purchased an assorted lot of merchandise, including some
VERY NICE THINGS IN Glass-Ware, Silver-Plated Ware,
CUTLERY, ALBUMS, CL OKS,
JEWELRY, &c.

At very much under the Regular Prices, and they will be SOLD
CHEAP.
We intend always to keep a nice assortment of goods, sell them
at low rates, have one price, and use everybody well.

All are kindly invited to examine our stock
LEWIS RICH & CO.
Weymouth Landing, April 16, 1898.

THE LARGEST STOCK
—OF—
PAPER AND LINEN COLLARS, CUFFS
—AND—DRESS SHIRTS
—IN—
NEW ENGLAND,
In all of the newest and most desirable styles,
may be found at
CHARLES A. NOYES & CO'S,
Nos. 72 Summer and 23 Otis Sts.,
BOSTON.

C. A. N. & CO., making this line of goods a specialty, and being Agents for the Manufacturers, are enabled to supply the trade in
any quantity, and on the most favorable terms.
N. B.—A full line of PALMERS' NEW DOUBLE YOKES, in all grades and prices, just received, to which we would call the attention of the trade.
S. W. PRATT, Sole Agent.
46-10

QUINCY MARBLE WORKS.
THE Proprietor would respectfully announce
that he has enlarged his premises by the addition of a WAREHOUSE, where every variety
of Monumental Work, from the simplest Grave Stone
to the most costly and elegant TABLET, may be seen finished and ready for lettering.
All persons needing such, are invited to call
and judge for themselves. We have no agent,
and depend entirely on the well known character of the place for good work and honest dealing, for success.
Near Rail Road Depot, South Quincy, Mass.
24-14 P. MCGRATH, Proprietor.

What is it?
AZURENE!
FOUTZ'S
CELEBRATED
HORSE AND CATTLE POWDERS.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly refresh, invigorate, and strengthen the system, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.
It is a sure preventive of all
diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG
FEVER, Glanders, Yellow Fever, Hay Fever, Colic, Stomach
Distress, Fever, Founder, Loss of Appetite, and VITAL ENERGY, &c. It is improved by the addition of
apple-juice, and gives a smooth
and glossy skin, and renders the animal healthy and strong.
In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite,
keeps their hide, and makes them thrive much
faster.
To keep off Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a preventive against Ringworm,
Scald, and other skin diseases.
It has been
proved by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk,
and to increase twenty per cent
and entirely prevent it. It gives a certain preventive and cure for
the Hog Cholera.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Cough, Throat
in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this animal acts as a specific. By mixing
from one-half a paper to a paper
in a barrel of feed, the above
disease will be eradicated or entirely prevented. It gives a certain preventive and cure for
the Hog Cholera.

DAVID E. FOUTZ, Proprietor,
Baltimore, Md.
For sale by Druggists and Storekeepers throughout the United States, Canada and South America.

THE GRAND
PEACE JUBILEE!
LEWIS RICH & CO.
Can beat the Boston Dollar Stores
ALL OUT.

They are this week opening a full assortment of DRY GOODS,
WOOLENS, CARPETINGS,
HOSIERY, GLOVES,
AND FANCY GOODS,
AT VERY LOW PRICES.

Common Prints, 6 1-4 cts.
Good Prints, 10 "
Merrimacks and other best makes, 12 1-2 cts.
A job lot of 12 1-2 cent Prints, slightly damaged, selling for 9 cts.
Best DeLaines from 17 to 20 cts.
Splendid line of double width Black and Colored Alpaca, 25 cts.
Heavy Poplin Alpaca, 25 cts.
Fine Tucked and Fancy Skirts, $1.00
All Linen Handkerchiefs, 8 1-3 cts.
Spool Cotton, 1 ct., 2 cts., 4 cts., and 8 cts.

Everything else equally cheap.
We also have a large variety of cheap, medium and fine
WOOLENS
For Men's and Boys' Wear.

LARGE STOCK OF DOMESTIC GOODS,
FLANNELS, SHAWLS,
Hoop Skirts, Corsets, White Goods, Linens,
&c. &c.

One of our partners, who spends his whole time in Boston and New York markets, has just purchased an assorted lot of merchandise, including some
VERY NICE THINGS IN Glass-Ware, Silver-Plated Ware,
CUTLERY, ALBUMS, CL OKS,
JEWELRY, &c.

At very much under the Regular Prices, and they will be SOLD
CHEAP.
We intend always to keep a nice assortment of goods, sell them
at low rates, have one price, and use everybody well.

All are kindly invited to examine our stock
LEWIS RICH & CO.
Weymouth Landing, April 16, 1898.

THE LARGEST STOCK
—OF—
PAPER AND LINEN COLLARS, CUFFS
—AND—DRESS SHIRTS
—IN—
NEW ENGLAND,
In all of the newest and most desirable styles,
may be found at
CHARLES A. NOYES & CO'S,
Nos. 72 Summer and 23 Otis Sts.,
BOSTON.

C. A. N. & CO., making this line of goods a specialty, and being Agents for the Manufacturers, are enabled to supply the trade in
any quantity, and on the most favorable terms.
N. B.—A full line of PALMERS' NEW DOUBLE YOKES, in all grades and prices, just received, to which we would call the attention of the trade.
S. W. PRATT, Sole Agent.
46-10

QUINCY MARBLE WORKS.
THE Proprietor would respectfully announce
that he has enlarged his premises by the addition of a WAREHOUSE, where every variety
of Monumental Work, from the simplest Grave Stone
to the most costly and elegant TABLET, may be seen finished and ready for lettering.
All persons needing such, are invited to call
and judge for themselves. We have no agent,
and depend entirely on the well known character of the place for good work and honest dealing, for success.
Near Rail Road Depot, South Quincy, Mass.
24-14 P. MCGRATH, Proprietor.

What is it?
AZURENE!
FOUTZ'S
CELEBRATED
HORSE AND CATTLE POWDERS.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly refresh, invigorate, and strengthen the system, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.
It is a sure preventive of all
diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG
FEVER, Glanders, Yellow Fever, Hay Fever, Colic, Stomach
Distress, Fever, Founder, Loss of Appetite, and VITAL ENERGY, &c. It is improved by the addition of
apple-juice, and gives a smooth
and glossy skin, and renders the animal healthy and strong.
In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite,
keeps their hide, and makes them thrive much
faster.
To keep off Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a preventive against Ringworm,
Scald, and other skin diseases.
It has been
proved by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk,
and to increase twenty per cent
and entirely prevent it. It gives a certain preventive and cure for
the Hog Cholera.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Cough, Throat
in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this animal acts as a specific. By mixing
from one-half a paper to a paper
in a barrel of feed, the above
disease will be eradicated or entirely prevented. It gives a certain preventive and cure for
the Hog Cholera.

DAVID E. FOUTZ, Proprietor,
Baltimore, Md.
For sale by Druggists and Storekeepers throughout the United States, Canada and South America.

CLOTHING!
ALL IN WANT OF READY-MADE
OR CUSTOM
CLOTHING
Hats, Caps, Trunks,
OR GENTS' & BOYS' Furnishing Goods,
WILL SAVE MONEY BY GIVING ME A CALL
BEFORE PURCHASING.

I now have a very large and well assorted stock of Ready-Made, and have just received many
NEW GOODS,
making a much larger variety than formerly. I also have a very fine stock of
NEW CLOTHS
FOR THE Custom Department

Such as German and French Broad-cloths, Tricots, Doekings, Scotch Mixtures, Harris Kersemeres, Cloths in variety, for Boys' wear, &c.
As I shall in future devote my whole time to the

Gents' and Boys' Department,
I shall be able to give customers
Special Bargains in Ready Made or Custom.

Well Fitting & Well Made Garments,
Cut in best style, and made in workmanlike manner. Our Custom Garments are all made by hand.
All Goods sold for what they are—No false representations made to induce purchasers.

Cutting and Repairing done at short notice.

IN READY-MADE I HAVE SOME
Choice Bargains.

Good All Wool Suits for Gents, $12
Boys' Suits, 5.00. Gents' Socks, 12 1-2 cts.; good Paper Collars, 10c. box—Spring Overcoats, (Scotch Goods) $12.
All new style Paper Collars, including
the Cloth Covered; White Shirts, and all other Furnishing Goods, in great variety.
Prices shall be satisfactory to all who
can appreciate good bargains.
New Goods received every day.

M. H. READ.
Weymouth Landing, April 2, 1898.

Just Received,
A FULL LINE
of Wool Carpetings,
CHEAP!
—ALSO,
Oil and Hemp Carpeting,
At Low Prices.

LEWIS RICH & CO.
Weymouth Landing, May 21, 1898.

Of Men's Goods for Summer Wear,
We have Goat Bragons,
Call Bragons, Congress, Hunts,
Oxford and Bragons, and "Prince Alberts."
And also a new style, a Serge and Canvass Opera Boot.

J. CRANE & SON.

Farming Tools.
—SUCH AS—SCYTHES, of the best manufacture in the country, ready sharpened for the grass.
SCYTHES, SICKLES, etc.,
For sale at the "New Stand,"
Weymouth, June 4, 1898.

A New Lot of Choice Crockery
direct from importers, selling for cash, at the
"New Stand,"
Weymouth, June 4, 1898.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,
THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed Administrator of the Estate of PATRICK WALL, late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself trust by giving bonds, as the laws direct, and persons having claims upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to ELIAS RICHARDS, Administrator.
May 12, 1898.

Davis Pain Killer
Good for Man or Beast.
For information respecting the Massachusetts Agricultural College
apply to Amherst, June 1, 1898. 5-17

For Coughs, Colds, &c., Use Davis' Pain Killer.
To sell the American Knitting Machine. Price $25. The simplest, cheapest and best Knitting Machine ever invented. Will knit 20,000 stitches per minute. Liberal inducements to agents. Address AMERICAN KNIT-TING MACHINE CO., Boston, Mass., or St. Louis, Mo.

100,000 Lives Lost yearly from the use of TOBACCO.
Save your money and restore your health,
by using Dr. B. M. Antidote for Tobacco.
This is not a substitute but a cure for Smoking. Chewing and Snuff-taking. Every person who is aware of the terrible effects of the noxious weed on the human system. Dyspepsia, Headache, Disease of the Liver, Sallow Complexion, Catarrhs of the Bowels, Loss of Memory, and other diseases are the afflictions brought on by its use. The Antidote is purely vegetable and harmless. It acts as a tonic on the system, purifies the blood, enables a person to digest the heaviest food.
Samples sent free for 50 cents—$3 per dozen.
Address M. J. Yarnell, 86 Canton St., N. Y. 21

Boston, Long Island, Quincy Point,
AND
NORTH WEYMOUTH.
Excursions Daily to Long Island, Quincy Point and LOVELL'S GROVE.

Steamer Massachusetts,
Capt. GEORGE F. BROWN
On and after Tuesday, June 1st, 1898, Until further notice will leave Quincy Point for North Weymouth, Long Island, and Boston, at 7:15, 11 A. M., 4:45 P. M.
Returning leaves Boston for Long Island,
Quincy Point and North Weymouth at 9:30 A.
M., 2:30, 6:15 P. M.
Fare from Quincy and North Weymouth to Long

The Weymouth Weekly Gazette.

VOL. 3.

WEYMOUTH, MASS., FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1869.

NO. 8

VISIT C. S. WILLIAMS' Dry Goods and Clothing Store,

And examine the assortment of Goods which are now being offered to customers and which cannot fail to suit all in want of GOOD STYLISH GOODS,
AT REASONABLE PRICES.

Having now in store a good variety of

DRESS GOODS,

INCLUDING

Black Alpaca,

Mohairs,

All-Wool Delaines,

All-Wool Plaids,

Robes de Voyage,

Wash Poplins,

And a large variety of other popular styles.

We have also on our TWENTY-FIVE CENT DRESS GOODS COUNTER a good display of DRESS GOODS, such as are usually sold for Thirty-seven to Forty cents, which we are selling at the low price of Twenty-five cents per yard; and all would do well to call and examine the goods as to quality and price.

A large variety of

SHAWLS,

At Very Low Prices.

Balmoral Skirts,

STAMPED SKIRTS,

All the late styles of Hoop Skirts,

Corsets, &c.

Merino and other Best Prints, 12 1/2 Cents.

A large assortment of HOSIERY and GLOVES, at popular prices. In the

CLOTHING DEPARTMENT,

We have now a large assortment of Fashionable and well-made Clothing, suitable for all ages and for all occupations, to which we invite the attention of all, confident that we can suit as to quality and price. We have a fine display of Grecian Suits, a good variety of Jackets and Pants, Coats Suits in great variety; Matched Suits, with Sack or English Walking Coats; all well-made Suits for Men, $13; Tweed Suits, at very reasonable prices.

FURNISHING GOODS,

OF ALL THE LATE STYLES;

Umbrellas, Trunks, Valises, &c.

We have also the Celebrated Bicycle Collar, which we introduced a few months ago, since which time it has taken the lead of all others, as we predicted at the start, for worth is recognized everywhere; a splendid assortment of

HATS AND CAPS;

A very large variety of Straw Hats; a number of styles of Panama Hats; and they will be sold for much less than the usual price.

If you wish to purchase your Dry Goods and Clothing where they can, and will, sell cheap, and where you can find

A Good Assortment.

And can rely on what they tell you, don't fail to visit

C. S. WILLIAMS, Weymouth Landing,

where all goods are purchased for cash; and as their expenses are light in proportion to their sales, they can and do sell for prices that suit the public.

We are always pleased to show our Goods,

Knowing that an inspection of the goods and prices, is all we have to do to convince all that we are still determined to keep the name we have gained, for selling goods at lowest prices.

C. S. WILLIAMS

WEYMOUTH LANDING.

Original Serial.

Grace Waldron,

—OR—

THE FALSE DAUGHTER.

A TALE OF NEW YORK.

CHAPTER XIII.

While a plot was ripening to forever destroy the happiness of Grace Waldron, Victor Stanhope was powerless to aid her far away amid the smoke and the carnage of the battle-field.

Yorktown and Williamsburg had been fought and won, but through all that fearful slaughter, Victor Stanhope, though always in the thickest of the fight, had escaped unharmed. Then came a lull in the operations against Richmond, and one evening Colonel Bland had gathered together all of his officers in his tent to celebrate the victories the army had won. The wine flowed freely, and the company were growing genial when Major Harding said, "How is it that Captain Stanhope never joins us?" "By-the-way, Colonel, who and what is he? He never joins us in our joyous meetings, although I really believe he is the best fighting man in the regiment. His men almost worship him, and well they may, for I know he never sleeps till he has looked after the comfort of every man in his company. Is he a second Claude Melnotte to become a second Colonel Mr.——?" The sentence was not finished for Victor Stanhope stood before the speaker. "Colonel," he said, "I hope you will excuse me, but one of my men, Sergeant McAllister, has by to-day mail a letter informing him that his wife is not expected to live. He is one of the best men I have and I dislike to part with him, but the poor fellow wishes for a short furlough, and I have come to request your signature to his application. He can be back in ten days."

"You shall have it with pleasure, Stanhope," said Colonel Bland; "but come, will you not join us in a glass of wine?" "Thank you, no, I have some matters to look to in camp and besides I must have this furlough for my sergeant arranged to-night," and having to his brother officers he left the tent as soon as Colonel Bland had signed the application. "Ask me no questions in regard to Captain Stanhope, Harding," said Colonel Bland; "I know his history, in some respects a very sad one; but you were a witness to a scene at the Astor House which convinced you and all of us that he is not a man to be trifled with. He does his duty and I have given him my word before you all not to mention his private relations again. He proves what he is on the field of battle, and I will warrant my commission there is not a man of those who are left of his company but would die for him, or stand by him to the last."

Sergeant McAllister sat with some of his companions beneath a tree, the letter which he had received crumpled in his hand, never dreaming that the agonizing struggle which he was undergoing, and which he could go home for a few days, had been overheard and moreover acted upon by his captain.

"Sergeant," said the Captain, approaching him unperceived, "I have obtained our Colonel's signature to an application for furlough for a furlough of ten days, and early tomorrow morning every thing will be arranged for you to start for home, and I trust you will be able to return with better news than you have today received, but if not," he continued, lowering his voice, "you know death must come to all."

No wonder his men loved him; to wonder that, as Colonel Bland had said, every one of them would be willing to lay down his life for him. Those colors, which he had promised to guard with his life, rested beside his head every night and that little flag of truce, as Colonel Bland had termed it, lay close to his heart.

The army advanced again; success under the most popular general seemed certain. The rebels were driven in confusion and Richmond was almost within our grasp. But then "somebody blundered" and retreat became inevitable, and then came the "seven days" backward fight. Colonel Bland's regiment was one of those which so gloriously and stubbornly covered the retreat, always under the fire of the enemy. It was at the close of the fourth day. Gallantly had the "New York" received charge after charge of the rebel cavalry, until it seemed that human endurance could bear no more. Then the banner, with its circle of stars, was well known and its captain, and the men seemed to think the northern soldiers fight either just for the sake of fighting or for a meaner motive, for money. I do not desire to urge the points of difference with any here, much less with one whose kindness I can never forget and never repay, but there are those at home whom I love very, very dearly, and who, I doubt not, mourned me as dead. I would see them, and as you keep too vigilant a watch for me to hope for escape, I have begged that you will do your best to send me away."

He took her hand, but at the mention of those at home whom he loved very dearly, she withdrew it saying, "of course you must wish to see your friends. I had almost forgotten you are not a southerner for the very reason that you have never made me feel you are a foe, but I will see to it that you have the first opportunity for an exchange. The first opportunity, I mean, for I have myself very suddenly fallen on my chest, and with his hand gathered up the hair near the crown of my head. He wasn't very tender about it, but I jerked my head this way and that, and pinched like Satan. My eyes were partially open, and I could see the thought in his eyes, and I could hear the sound of his teeth grinding. Suddenly, I felt the awfulest cutting, cutting flash go round my head, and then it seemed to me just as if my whole head had been jerked clean off. I never felt such pain in all my life; why, it was like pulling your brains out. I didn't know any more for two or three days, and I came to find that I had the sorest head of any human that ever lived. I was shipped down to Laramie after a bit, and all the nursing I got hadn't made the hair grow out on this spot yet."

In the meanwhile Victor Stanhope was worn with anxiety for the fate of her whom he valued above country and above life itself. He was constantly haunted by the memory of the story told him by an old woman before he left New York, and every night he dreamed of Grace in some trouble or another, to wake to the consciousness of his misery, to be powerless to aid her.

Sometimes the brave Captain Stanhope almost cursed the hour that he was induced to join the army, at other times he felt that he could with his single arm demolish the defences of Richmond and go forth a free man.

His time, however, came and he heard with a beating heart that he was to be exchanged. His parting with Lucy was a very sad one, for she had not learned to hide the feelings of the heart and he could but admire the dark-eyed girl whose loving care had given him health and soothed the bitter hours of captivity. But it was high time that he was far away for strange events were occurring among those he loved and his arm was needed in more ways than one to right the wronged.

A JUVENILE AERONAUT.—In some respects the most remarkable thing that ever took place was one made by an apprentice boy of twelve years old named Guerino, who was taken up by the action of the balloon itself without his consent, and without any intention that he should go up on the part of any other person. It was a rarefied air balloon, and it began slowly to rise, and at the same time to drift along with the wind, dragging the car and the anchor over the ground. It happened that, as the anchor was thus drawn along, and was beginning to rise, it passed so closely over this boy—who was sitting quietly near by his companions, not dreaming of the possibility of his being taken up, that he caught the fluke in the waistband of his pantaloons, and as it continued to ascend it took him up with it.

The boy uttered piercing screams and cries and calls for help; and there was perhaps no harm in this so long as he held on bravely. Of course no help was possible except calls to him from below to hold on. He found that the waistband began to give way, and he instinctively grasped the rope above his head with both hands, and so sustained himself. The strength of his hands, without the aid of the Montgolfier, but a spectacle would have been sufficient to sustain him, and the waistband was not strong enough to hold him. Both together, however, answered the purpose.

It was very fortunate for Guerino that it was a Montgolfier, that is, a rarefied air balloon, and not one filled with hydrogen, that was running away with him; for in the latter case the gas within would have continued to expand as the outside pressure upon it diminished by the increasing elevation; and as there would have been no possibility of opening the valve to relieve the pressure, the balloon would have burst and collapsed, and the poor boy would have fallen a thousand feet or more to the ground with force. But being a Montgolfier, the ascending power gradually diminished as the air grew cool, until at length, after floating a moment in equilibrium, it began slowly to descend. As the balloon descended, the rope which had begun to untwist under the influence of the boy's weight, turned more and more rapidly; and inasmuch as a person suspended from a balloon is never conscious of his own motion—the illusion which makes the motion seem to be in the earth, and not in the balloon being perfect—as it is indeed on a smaller scale to a person going up in the elevator of a hotel—it appeared to Guerino that the earth was spinning round beneath him in a vast and most frightful gyration. Guerino was more terrified than ever. As he drew near the ground or rather, as it appeared to him, as the ground and the concourse of spectators upon it came whirling up to him, he cried out to the people to save him. They called to him in reply not to be afraid, that he was all right; and, receiving him in their arms as soon as he came within reach, they set him down on the ground and rubbed the spinning of the earth and unhooked him from the anchor.

The incident of course created a great sensation at the time; and, as the account of it became a part of the history of aerostation, the story will be repeated in all coming days. Guerino found himself very suddenly fallen on my chest, and with his hand gathered up the hair near the crown of my head. He wasn't very tender about it, but I jerked my head this way and that, and pinched like Satan. My eyes were partially open, and I could see the thought in his eyes, and I could hear the sound of his teeth grinding. Suddenly, I felt the awfulest cutting, cutting flash go round my head, and then it seemed to me just as if my whole head had been jerked clean off. I never felt such pain in all my life; why, it was like pulling your brains out. I didn't know any more for two or three days, and I came to find that I had the sorest head of any human that ever lived. I was shipped down to Laramie after a bit, and all the nursing I got hadn't made the hair grow out on this spot yet."

A soldier who lost his scalp with Custer at Washita tells how it felt. First an Indian clubbed him as he lay wounded. Then a squaw squatted on his breast, and pulled his hair out by handfuls as she screeched his death song on his suffering head. Then, and for the first time, the Indian stepped one foot on my chest, and with his hand gathered up the hair near the crown of my head. He wasn't very tender about it, but I jerked my head this way and that, and pinched like Satan. My eyes were partially open, and I could see the thought in his eyes, and I could hear the sound of his teeth grinding. Suddenly, I felt the awfulest cutting, cutting flash go round my head, and then it seemed to me just as if my whole head had been jerked clean off. I never felt such pain in all my life; why, it was like pulling your brains out. I didn't know any more for two or three days, and I came to find that I had the sorest head of any human that ever lived. I was shipped down to Laramie after a bit, and all the nursing I got hadn't made the hair grow out on this spot yet."

The incident of course created a great sensation at the time; and, as the account of it became a part of the history of aerostation, the story will be repeated in all coming days. Guerino found himself very suddenly fallen on my chest, and with his hand gathered up the hair near the crown of my head. He wasn't very tender about it, but I jerked my head this way and that, and pinched like Satan. My eyes were partially open, and I could see the thought in his eyes, and I could hear the sound of his teeth grinding. Suddenly, I felt the awfulest cutting, cutting flash go round my head, and then it seemed to me just as if my whole head had been jerked clean off. I never felt such pain in all my life; why, it was like pulling your brains out. I didn't know any more for two or three days, and I came to find that I had the sorest head of any human that ever lived. I was shipped down to Laramie after a bit, and all the nursing I got hadn't made the hair grow out on this spot yet."

A soldier who lost his scalp with Custer at Washita tells how it felt. First an Indian clubbed him as he lay wounded. Then a squaw squatted on his breast, and pulled his hair out by handfuls as she screeched his death song on his suffering head. Then, and for the first time, the Indian stepped one foot on my chest, and with his hand gathered up the hair near the crown of my head. He wasn't very tender about it, but I jerked my head this way and that, and pinched like Satan. My eyes were partially open, and I could see the thought in his eyes, and I could hear the sound of his teeth grinding. Suddenly, I felt the awfulest cutting, cutting flash go round my head, and then it seemed to me just as if my whole head had been jerked clean off. I never felt such pain in all my life; why, it was like pulling your brains out. I didn't know any more for two or three days, and I came to find that I had the sorest head of any human that ever lived. I was shipped down to Laramie after a bit, and all the nursing I got hadn't made the hair grow out on this spot yet."

The incident of course created a great sensation at the time; and, as the account of it became a part of the history of aerostation, the story will be repeated in all coming days. Guerino found himself very suddenly fallen on my chest, and with his hand gathered up the hair near the crown of my head. He wasn't very tender about it, but I jerked my head this way and that, and pinched like Satan. My eyes were partially open, and I could see the thought in his eyes, and I could hear the sound of his teeth grinding. Suddenly, I felt the awfulest cutting, cutting flash go round my head, and then it seemed to me just as if my whole head had been jerked clean off. I never felt such pain in all my life; why, it was like pulling your brains out. I didn't know any more for two or three days, and I came to find that I had the sorest head of any human that ever lived. I was shipped down to Laramie after a bit, and all the nursing I got hadn't made the hair grow out on this spot yet."

The incident of course created a great sensation at the time; and, as the account of it became a part of the history of aerostation, the story will be repeated in all coming days. Guerino found himself very suddenly fallen on my chest, and with his hand gathered up the hair near the crown of my head. He wasn't very tender about it, but I jerked my head this way and that, and pinched like Satan. My eyes were partially open, and I could see the thought in his eyes, and I could hear the sound of his teeth grinding. Suddenly, I felt the awfulest cutting, cutting flash go round my head, and then it seemed to me just as if my whole head had been jerked clean off. I never felt such pain in all my life; why, it was like pulling your brains out. I didn't know any more for two or three days, and I came to find that I had the sorest head of any human that ever lived. I was shipped down to Laramie after a bit, and all the nursing I got hadn't made the hair grow out on this spot yet."

SHOEMAKERS.

Lynn became celebrated for the manufacture of ladies' shoes at a very early period. The first shoe-makers of whom there is any record were Philip Kerland and Edmund Bridges, who came from Sherrington, in Buckinghamshire, (Eng.) and had ten acres of land allotted them by the town. In 1640, two sons of Kerland went to form the new settlement of Southampton, Long Island. A third son, John, went to Saybrook, and from him descended several eminent persons. Among these were Rev. Daniel Kerland, minister at Norwich, and father of Rev. Samuel Kerland, the noted missionary to the Oneida Indians. The latter was the father of the distinguished John Thornton Kerland, President of Harvard University, and grandfather of Rev. Samuel K. Lothrop, of Boston.

The makers of ladies' shoes were long since designated "cordwainers," from Cordova, a Spanish city, once famous for the craft. From thence came the French term "cordonniers," which afterwards got corrupted into the Anglo-Saxon "cordwainers."

The beginning, women's shoes at Lynn were made of neat's leather, or wooden cloth; only they had a nicer pair of white silk for the wedding-day, which were carefully preserved as something too delicate for ordinary use. About the year 1670 shoes began to be cut with broad straps for buckles, which were worn by women as well as by men. In 1727 square-toed shoes and buckles for ladies went out of fashion; though buckles continued to be worn by men till after the Revolution. The sole-leather was all worked with the flesh side out. In 1740, John Adam Dagry, a Welshman, gave great impetus and notoriety to the Lynn shoe-trade by producing shoes equal to the best made in England. The history of Lynn says of Dagry, that "shoemakers from all parts of the town went to him for information; and he is called, in the Boston Gazette of 1764, 'the celebrated shoemaker of Essex.' He resided on Boston street, not far from the foot of Mall. He married Susanah Newhall in 1761, and had three children, Caroline, Sarah, and Joseph. Like many who have consulted the public interest more than their own, he was poor, and died in the Lynn Almshouse in 1808. Dagry not only introduced the use of first-rate workmanship himself, but imparted his skill to others. Previous to Dagry's arrival the workmen frequently obtained good shoes from England and took them to pieces to see how they were made. After Dagry's instruction, however, this operation was no longer necessary.

From Dagry's time dates the permanent advancement of Lynn, for in 1764 the London Chronicle said that Lynn shoes were better made and in better style than most of the shoes imported from England." The Boston Gazette of the same date spoke in similar terms, and said that the shoes of Lynn were "not only equal to the best made in England, but were made in Lynn. Lynn was one of the earliest towns to engage in the woolen manufacture. During the ten months ending April, 1770, more than 800 yards of broad and 3,000 of narrow cloth were made in the town. This trade, however, probably from the want of adequate water power, never greatly increased. In 1810, we read that 1,000,000 pairs of shoes, valued at $800,000, were made in Lynn, and females earned $50,000 that year by handiwork. Since that time the business has rapidly increased. The contrast between Lynn of half a century since and Lynn of to-day is so striking as to call for some remark. In 1800, Lynn, at the best, was but an obscure shoemaking village, struggling for a livelihood and barely getting on its feet. It was a comparatively new settlement, and isolated in a wilderness, the land and the water were difficult, and a journey there was an event to be thought of, for it was not till 1803 that the Salem and Boston turnpike road was opened for travel. There were few persons around Lynn who possessed a watch, the inhabitants consisting almost wholly of thrifty, hard-working shoemakers and farmers. Nothing but the sturdy Anglo-Saxon character and the resolute Puritan spirit which secretly rejoiced in raising up a rival England in opposition to Old England which had persecuted it, could have overcome these difficulties. This struggle, however, developed health, energy, thrift and ingenuity, and the Puritan church being disconnected with the national government, men's minds were left free to the advancing intelligence of the age which gradually drove out the superstition of the past. As for the houses of the town they were mostly two storied shanties scattered few and far between, and buried beneath the trees.

The manufacturers, with one or two exceptions, were still more insignificant. They were mere boxes one story in height, twelve feet square, with a freestone chimney in one corner, and a cutting board in another. These boxes were connected with nearly every dwelling house, and fathers, sons, journeymen and apprentices worked together in them. The only machinery attached to them was a grindstone, and sometimes even this was absent. It was then considered excellent work if a proprietor of one of these boxes completed a case of shoes in three weeks, and the sending of a few cases to market attracted the attention of the stragglers of the village.

The workmen of these times were genuine shoemakers who could complete a shoe from beginning to end, and consequently the labor being more diversified was not so fatiguing as that of their modern successors, who by the division of labor, rendered necessary by the use of machinery and the growth of the factory system, are now confined to single branches such as heeling, lasting, cutting, stitching, and so on. The old shoemaker was not in one position all day long, but he was in a position to do all the work of the shoe.

In old times it used to be the fashion in shoe-shops to appoint one of the workmen to read aloud to the men. This created many interesting discussions between the intellect and the laborer. Under the modern factory system this is impracticable. This explains why the old fashioned shoemakers were so well read.

SAILORS' BOARDING HOUSES.

While very few of the sailors' boarding houses in New York have more than two stories and basement, they are fitted up to accommodate a great number of persons. Rooms were originally 15 or 20 feet square, have been divided into four, small, close and dismal; or else left their original size, are crowded with beds and one enough for twice or thrice the number intended. Often in a room with not more than sufficient ventilation for two, eight and ten persons are stowed away in beds whose linens are damped with filth and alive with vermin. Inmates of carpet or oil cloth, barren of curtains or mirrors, they have the desolate appearance of a prison cell. In each of the several bedrooms which we saw there was displayed one decoration—a cheap print of some Catholic saint or of the Virgin, before which the inmates of the houses daily and nightly repeat their unmeaning prayers. In the dance-rooms, which is the parlor of the establishment, and to which all visitors "who," as one of the most notorious of the keepers expressed it, "come to spend greenbacks and welcome," the only pieces of furniture are a rude bench extending around the room, and a table which is at once the platform on which the musician is elevated and the liquor ordered by the dancers is deposited. The music and the liquors are equally indifferent; the only worse thing to be found in such houses is—character. There is no comparison which will illustrate the quality of the music, for the proprietors are of a wily class whom the law is always pursuing but never catches; burglars and murderers at heart denied by a merciful nature the ingenuity or courage to pursue those callings. Their runners or touters, as they are called, are men who have been driven from every respectable employment for the commission of every species of petty crime. The women are old and faded creatures—most pitiful and unsightly wretches—whom lack of virtue and love of liquor have aided to degrade to the lowest depths of humanity. The runner, if found without employment and money, would be arrested as a vagrant; the women who here are shameless in their exposure of themselves, would be arrested in any house which had not the magical license of the Police Commissioners as a protection. The landlords are pre-eminently hypocrites, careful to give the law no hold upon them. For the more open and bold robberies they commit, the women pay the penalty if any is exacted; the actual thief, the hypocritical landlord, appears in court to thank the judge for punishing the thief and redeeming the character of his house.

HOW SAILORS ARE DECEIVED.

The means by which sailors are lured to these dens are as curious as they are infamous. When a vessel returning from a long voyage enters the Lower Bay, the Sandy Hook Telegraph Company announces her approach to New York for the benefit of four classes—the Quarantine officers, active to discover disease; the Customs inspectors, eager to detect smugglers; citizens anxious to welcome friends, and touters, anxious to decoy sailors to their masters' dens. The Treasury rules provide that from the time the Quarantine officers begin their examinations in the Lower Bay until the inspection of the Customs officers is finished at the dock, no other persons than the Government officers and pilot shall board a vessel entering the harbor. The New York State law of 1866, alluded to as having been passed for the better protection of the seamen in this port, especially prohibits owners of seamen's boarding houses from boarding a ship before she has been made fast to the wharf, and not then without leave in writing from her owners or agents or without a badge denoting his calling and giving him a designated number by which he may be known. In the enforcement of this special regulation and the law, respectable citizens are forbidden to communicate with their friends; an iron railing or wooden gate prevents parents from embracing long-absent children; even hand-shaking through the bars is prohibited, lest through the impression of affection the Government may be swindled by a smuggling operation. But while State laws and Treasury regulations are strictly enforced against respectable citizens incapable of knowingly violating them, they are dead letters compared with the combined ruses known as touters, and who are known to be leagued with the smugglers. The touters are permitted to board—rather they are not prevented from boarding any vessel at any hour they choose, in open defiance of the law; and numbers of them from their stations on Staten Island, flock to incoming ships when at Quarantine landing, or immediately after entering the harbor. Not one attempt is made to prevent their coming and going at pleasure. They have no fear of the revenue cutters, as the smugglers have, and to all appearances the cutters have no eye for the touters as they have for the professional smugglers. Few captains of ships have the courage to forbid their boarding their vessels.

"Why," we asked a sea captain, in which the touters operated, "why cannot you forbid them from boarding you?" "Because the law will not protect the captain in the performance of his duty," was the answer. "If I attempted to enforce it on my ship, I should have to fight not only the runners but the crew. After a long voyage, the sailor becomes very insubordinate when he gets in sight of port, and to order off these men who come as the friends of the crew—they are not always very good friends—but they are often the only ones who do come to meet the sailors—would be to exasperate the crew. Then I should have the touters to fight the moment I landed, and I doubt if a captain's life would be safe if he offended them. I do know, however, that if I was to prohibit them from boarding my ship, I would very probably not have a ship long. My owners would have to discharge me as a sort of Jonah. So formidable is the combination among the runners, the boarding masters and shipping masters, that if I were to offend one class of them they could prevent me from getting a crew, and my ship would have to lie idle until my owners dismissed me and got a more polite captain."

Once on board the ship the touters are permitted to mingle freely with the crew, and to express themselves in the most friendly language. The touters are generally employed for their plausible manner; the title is an expression of this quality, being an English slang phrase for a "smooth talker," and is one of praise given by the employer rather than of reproach bestowed by the victim. They offer the crew their services not only in obtaining their boarding-houses, but in securing their early discharge and immediate payment of their wages. The dark side of the prospect Jack does not stop to think of—if he does contemplate it is dismissed from his mind as unavoidable, and he makes the best of the hard fate before him. Money he knows he must have to live elsewhere; money he must have to enjoy his freedom ashore; the touter's friendly offer of a home, immediate liberty from ship discipline, and liberal money advances are temptations too great for poor Jack to resist, and he falls a helpless victim into the hands of the land sharks. He is made helpless by the laws that protect a great enterprise rich enough to take care of itself. The law which enables the ship owners to deny the touter his wages when due him is the primary and direct cause of the sailors' troubles ashore. No other class of laborers is imposed on in this way by the law, and it is the existence of this and the non-existence of other provisions to be pointed out, which makes the United States the cruelest enemy to her sailors.

The moment the discipline of ship is cast off, with a stout glass Jack enters into the bondage of landfildism. If he could foresee the fate before him he would leave the ship with a sigh of pain. The law which enables the ship owners to deny the touter his wages when due him is the primary and direct cause of the sailors' troubles ashore. No other class of laborers is imposed on in this way by the law, and it is the existence of this and the non-existence of other provisions to be pointed out, which makes the United States the cruelest enemy to her sailors.

Thus, before he is fairly installed in his new quarters, he is heavily in debt—be it in bondage. To obtain a meal, a bed, or money, Jack must submit to these charges, and not only place his box of clothing, etc., in the hands of the landlord, but he is often compelled to give the ample security of a written order or power of attorney to the landlord to collect his pay. From this time forward he is the slave of the landlord, and cannot, by any chance, get away from his prison house while his money lasts. We learned of instances where the wily landlord has collected, but never admitted the receipt of a sailor's pay until it was spent; and all the time that it lasted he was advancing the sailor small sums out of his own money, and charging heavy interest. As a general thing, sailors draw their own pay, but the landlord to whom he is indebted stands by to give him the receipt of the land-shark; they are not only not allowed to see it, except as the landlords choose to advance it in dribs, but they are actually prevented from shipping again until the whole of it is spent. They may not remain in port a week—often the demand for money is so great that they are forced to remain on shore but a few days—still they find the balance at the landlord's is against them; the whole sum due him is declared absorbed by false and exorbitant charges for board, etc. Often the landlord's charges for a week exceed the earnings of a crew, and the sailor goes as penniless on board his new ship as he was when he came from his last.

How JONATHAN EDWARDS SADDLED A HORSE.—Grace Greenwood tells a story of the great theologian as follows: Mr. Edwards, having preached for a poor country parson, found to his dismay on Monday morning that there was no man or boy about the premises to bring up his horse for him. On his confessing that he knew little about such things, his hostess, a hospitable creature, went to the pasture, caught and bridled the staid clerical steed, and led it up to the gate. Then, as she was about to put on the saddle, the great minister came out, and gallantly protested against her performing any further groom service, saying he thought he could manage the rest for himself. So she went about her household affairs. The good man was a long time wrestling with the mysteries of that saddle; but just as the lady was going again to his assistance, he came in to get his saddle-bags and take his leave. "Ah, Mr. Edwards, how have you succeeded?" she asked. "Very well, indeed, I thank you," he replied; "but it was unusual employment for me, and I was a little awkward. I had some difficulty in properly adjusting the straps and buckles; and there is still a superfluous piece of leather, the office of which I cannot divine. It hangs over the neck of the animal, and will not do me any harm. The lady, somewhat curious, stepped to the gate, to find that Mr. Edwards had put on the saddle a rebours—the pomel pointing tailwards; leaving, perhaps, a vague idea that as he was going back to Northampton, that was the way to do it. The superfluous piece of leather was the crupper."

A New York editor says sugar has gone up so high as to produce a slight increase in the price of bread.

THE WEYMOUTH GAZETTE.

FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1898.

MR. H. C. CANTABRIGIA is the only authorized General Agent for the Gazette, and all receipts given by him will be acknowledged.

THE CUBAN STRUGGLE.

Since the commencement of the attempt of the native Cubans to throw off the yoke of Spanish domination, thirteen expeditions have left this country for the island, and others are in course of preparation, notwithstanding the effort of government to prevent any violation of international law. By the expeditions which have succeeded in making a landing, the insurgents have received about 30,000 rifles, a full battery of 12-pounders, 31 field pieces of lighter calibre and a howitzer, with 500,000 cartridges, and quantities of sabres, revolvers, &c. It is supposed that about 700 men have sailed with these expeditions, and are now numbered with the insurgent forces. The movement to free the island from Spanish mastery, to use which has been assumed so formidable a character that the efforts of the rulers to crush it seem abortive. The Cubans declare that they are fighting for annexation to the United States, which is said to be a generally existing desire among them, and their promising freedom to the island, and to them a prestige which will gain for them popular sympathy. The fact that there is a feeling of sympathy in this country for the Cubans, intensifies Spanish hatred of our countrymen, whom they declare to be the cause of the outbreak and strengthening of the rebellion. The American people of late have been treated more than usual amount of insult. It is highly probable that the Cuban people are possessed of peculiar feelings of regard for this country, as many of them have sent their children here to be educated, and in this way have become acquainted with principles of political and personal liberty which may prove the seeds of a fruitful harvest of freedom in the Gem of the Antilles.

NOVEL REVENUE.—A rather singular phase of the old-fashioned, time-honored parish usages of our puritanic forefathers, has just come to light in the staid and sober town of Haverhill. Rev. Mr. Freeman was settled as pastor of the First Congregational Church, and society some twelve or fifteen years ago. Mr. F., in his zeal to promote the Master's cause, made himself obnoxious to some of the young men, by strenuously opposing the use of the Town Hall for balls and kindred gatherings. Thereupon the young men sought revenge in an unusual and novel manner. Not having sufficient grace to join the church, they applied for admission to the parish where grace is not considered a requisite to membership. They were received, and all went smoothly until the annual Parish Meeting, when the new members voted not to raise anything for the ensuing year for the payment of the pastor's salary, thus virtually and summarily dismissing that gentleman from the duties of his office.

Rev. Mr. Aiken, of the Congregational Church, Haverhill Four Corners, has been dismissed in a similar manner; for what cause, we are unable to say. A Congregational Church in Plymouth is supplied every Sabbath by students from the Baptist Theological Seminary at Newton. The Church are nearly all Baptist in sentiment.

JUBILEE ITEMS.—The capacity of the railroads was well tested last week. Employees on the Old Colony say the travel exceeded any of the kind since the construction of the road. Some of the North Shore trains were crowded to such an extent as to compel passengers to ride on the steps outside. All the roads run extra trains.

At Braintree, during the continuation of the Jubilee, there were 36 trains daily. The average sale of tickets was about 250 per day. At South Braintree, the first two days 600 tickets were sold, and 300 on succeeding days. At No. Bridgewater 1200 tickets were sold in four days. The average sale of tickets on the Old Colony was 8,000 per day. Notwithstanding this increased travel, extra trains and rapid speed, no accidents are reported on any road in this vicinity.

NORTH WEYMOUTH.

The steamer Massasoit, which was expected to run to accommodate the traveling public, does not meet the expectation of the people. The afternoon boats leave the city at 2.30 and 6.15, which are very inconvenient times for most people. It is better to leave at 4 or 5 P. M., it would be accommodated much better. Quite a number of persons who have season tickets on the S. & N. R. were intending to purchase season tickets on the steamer, but on inquiry of the agent it was found that no season tickets would be sold on the steamer, and had been advertised. Of course, the owners know that it would cost no more to run the boat if it carried a few passengers on season tickets, but as they had concluded to exclude them unless they purchase package tickets, why of course they will continue to patronize the S. & N. R. rather than a steamer ticket so little more than half per day of what package tickets cost on the steamer.

Another matter of inconvenience to Weymouth passengers, is in not always being left at their wharf at Great Hill, but for some reason or other, are sometimes carried to Quincy Point, and then obliged to walk from there to their homes, which is not very pleasant for ladies and children after being in the city all day.

The fact is, the owners of the line, whether intentionally or otherwise, do not run the steamer to meet the wants and requirements of the traveling public. It looks as though they intended to run the boat more to accommodate parties from Boston who wish to take a pleasure trip down the harbor, to visit the Long Island House, which is owned by them, at North Weymouth, and Lovell's Grove, where they have built a large veranda for the use of pleasure boats, and for those who do business in the city and live at Quincy and Weymouth.

What it wants here is an opposition line as at Hingham, and then the boats may be run to accommodate the public. A steamer that could make the trips to and from the city, with the speed of either of the Hingham boats would soon see the Steamer Massasoit running with no passengers or laid up for want of patronage.

W. N. HARPER'S MAGAZINE has a very interesting article in the July number, on "Aeronautics, profusely illustrated, such on making voyages by machinery, also illustrated. Other papers are Border (teminences, Birds of Paradise, A Night at Sea, Giants and Dwarfs, Grant on the Battle-field, A Street Arab, etc.

SOUTH WEYMOUTH.

The Lovells, of Boston, and the King Phillips, of East Abington, played a matched game of Base Ball at the Fair Grounds Saturday afternoon. Between 700 and 800 spectators were present. The Lovells beat by a score of 21 to 7. Mr. J. A. E. Lovell's injuries are not quite as bad as reported last week. He is in a fair way to recover.

ABINGTON.

FOUND DEAD.—Mr. Jacob Hersey, of South Abington, was driving his horse and cart over the usual route in Duxbury one day last week, called at the house of a Mr. Cushman, an old man of 70, living alone, whom he regularly supplied with bread. The doors were open, and on entering Mr. Hersey discovered Mr. C. on the floor, near a lounge, dead. Mr. H. called the neighbors, and $80 in greenbacks were found on the floor, near the corpse, also $500 in bills in an open secretory, and some U. S. bonds. Mr. C. had not been seen for two days, and had evidently been dead at least 24 hours. He was in independent circumstances, had no relatives, and leaves his property, by will, to a little girl in the vicinity. On Friday last an Irish-woman took the cars at East Abington, with a pair of twins in arms, for the Jubilee baby show. She rode in the water closet to Boston, thereby escaping the notice of the conductor, and was not detected until she was a fair in the O. C. Depot about her pitiable condition, minus both money and return ticket, that a contribution was improvised for her benefit and the necessary ticket given her. She should have had a premium.

INDEPENDENT DAY.—A grand union convention will be held in East Abington, on Monday, July 5, at which Dr. Leas, the distinguished temperance orator from England, Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Rev. Mrs. Hanaford, and other well-known speakers will be present. It is expected that this will prove a meeting of unusual interest. It will doubtless attract a large gathering of the friends of temperance in this section of the state.

OLD COLONY ENCAMPMENT. under command of Sir Z. L. Bicknell, celebrated St. John's Day, yesterday, by a parade at Abington, and a collation was provided at South Abington by the resident knights. A social festival was held in Masonic Hall in evening.

DUXBURY.—Benjamin Cushing was found dead at his house on the "Point" on Saturday last. He was lying on the floor with his head resting on a lounge. Bank bills were in his hand and lying about him as if he had been counting money. It is thought he had been dead a day or more. He lived alone, and was accustomed to be out of doors, but had not been noticed through the day before.

The telegraph company are talking of building an office over on the town beyond the point for their accommodation. RUNAWAYS.—Two boys, representing themselves to be residents of Kingston, passed through this town Monday, in quest of work, stating that they had walked all the previous night, and were now out on money to procure food. They were provided with lodgings that night by Mr. Cream, of Weymouth Landing, who afterwards discovered, by an advertisement giving a description of the boys, that they were runaways from Worcester.

The supreme court at its late session in Boston, granted a decree annulling the marriage contract between A. C. Chandler and Emily Chandler, of East Randolph.

WEYMOUTH.

THE WEYMOUTH CHORAL SOCIETY. The enthusiasm which had been so prevalent among the members of this society while preparing for the Peace Jubilee, seemed to have decidedly abated at the meeting last Monday evening, at which time it was expected that arrangements would have been made for a concert, in compliment to the leader, Mr. Webb. The paucity of numbers, however, may be ascribed to the Peace Jubilee, at which time it was expected that arrangements would be made for a concert, in compliment to the leader, Mr. Webb. The paucity of numbers, however, may be ascribed to the Peace Jubilee, at which time it was expected that arrangements would be made for a concert, in compliment to the leader, Mr. Webb.

FESTIVAL.—The strawberry festival given on Wednesday evening by the choir of the Baptist church, Weymouth, was an occasion of much enjoyment to the company present, but the unfavorable weather of the early part of the day prevented a large attendance, and the receipts barely covered the expenses.

ENGINE GATHERING.—Measures are on foot for a grand gathering of firemen with their machines, at Weymouth Landing at an early day. An invitation has been forwarded to the East Abington and other companies to be present, and particulars will probably be announced next week.

THE UNION FIRE ENGINE CO. of Weymouth and Braintree turned out Wednesday evening and visited Edward Avery, Esq. of Braintree, where they were cordially received, and presented with a sum of money. They then called on A. M. Gerrold, of Weymouth, who presented money and refreshments, and extended a hearty welcome to his guests. The company passed a unanimous vote of thanks to Messrs. Avery and Gerrold.

MASSACHUSETTS.—Delta Lodge F. & A. M. has made applications for a charter, and will commence work with a good number of members.

GOOD HEALTH. a journal of Physical and Mental Culture, in its second number, presents articles on the Eye and Sight, Taking Cold, Light in the Sick Chamber, The Skin, First Aid in Accidents, and much other reading of a useful character. Published by Alex. Morse, 21 Franklin St., Boston.

An aged couple reside in East Braintree, who have been married sixty-seven years. They are still hale and hearty.

LOVELL'S CORNER.

The perusal of a spicy article in last week's issue of the Gazette, from the pen of Henry Ward Beecher, on tattle, and tattle, prompted us to add a few words on gossip and gossiping. Mr. Beecher designates the tattlers as hungry eyed wretches, who poison the health of man in man—miscreants who are the common enemies of good men. He also states that tattle is a thing so scandalous that it should degrade a person. And as to those who indulge in tattle, he adds—Hunt, hurry and home them out of society. They are the worst pests save one and that is the listener to the tattlebeaver.

There seems to be a necessary amount of falsehood, deceit and slander ever annexed to gossip which makes it the more to be dreaded and despised. The quietude and harmony of society are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old maid, or to be silent that do that. But to be silent and attentive only to their own affairs is more than gossip can well do. Yet they are unwearingly in mischief making. We therefore infer that truthful tattlers are very scarce. Gossips are like the species of makes who have the power of spreading evil and gossip and its appendages exist, in its danger. The hungry eyed and thirsty crotchets are ever weaving their webs, and it is their glory to turn their neighbor's every word and act to evil advantage. Their mission is to set out for an old

CLOTHING!

ALL IN WANT OF
READY-MADE

OR CUSTOM CLOTHING

Hats, Caps, Trunks,
OR
GENTS' & BOYS' Furnishing Goods,

WILL SAVE MONEY BY GIVING ME A CALL
BEFORE PURCHASING.

NEW GOODS,

NEW CLOTHS

Custom Department

Gents' and Boys' Department,

Special Bargains in

Ready Made or Custom.

Well Fitting & Well Made Garments,

Cutting and Repairing
done at short notice.

IN READY-MADE I HAVE SOME

Choice Bargains.

Good All Wool Suits for Gents, $14

Boys' Suits, 5.00. Gents' Socks, 12 1-2

Spring Overcoats, (Scottish Goods) $12.

All new style Paper Collars, including

the Cloth Covered; White Shirts, and all other Furnishing Goods, in great variety.

Prices shall be satisfactory to all who

can appreciate good bargains.

New Goods received every day.

M. H. READ.

Weymouth Landing, April 2, 1899.

ARGOSY FLOUR!

CLOTH COLLAR,

Sold at same Price as PAPER.

TO LET.

COUNTING ROOM and part of store, for a best Manufacturer, at No. 2 Pearl Street and 10 Milk Street, one of the most desirable locations in Boston. Inquire of WHALL & MANFIELD.

Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

Houghton's Pavilion! Houghton's Pavilion!

THE GRAND PEACE JUBILEE!

LEWIS RICH & CO.

Can beat the Boston Dollar Stores

ALL OUT.

They are this week opening a full assortment of

DRY GOODS,

WOOLENS,

CARPETINGS,

HOSIERY, GLOVES,

AND

FANCY GOODS,

AT VERY LOW PRICES.

Common Prints, 6 1-4 cts.

Good Prints, 10 "

Merrimacks and other best makes, 12 1-2 cts.

A job lot of 12 1-2 cent Prints, slightly damaged, selling for 9 cts.

Best Delaines from 17 to 20 cts.

Splendid line of double width Black and Colored Alpaca, 25 cts.

Heavy Poplin Alpaca, 25 cts.

Fine Tucked and Fancy Skirts, $1.00

All Linen Handkerchiefs, 8 1-3 cts.

Spool Cotton, 1 ct., 2 cts., 4 cts. and 8 cts.

Everything else equally cheap.

We also have a large variety of cheap, medium and fine

WOOLENS

For Men's and Boys' Wear.

LARGE STOCK OF

DOMESTIC GOODS,

FLANNELS, SHAWLS,

Hoop Skirts, Corsets, White Goods, Linens,

&c. &c.

One of our partners, who spends his whole time in Boston and New York markets, has just purchased an assorted lot of merchandise, including some

VERY NICE THINGS IN

Glass-Ware, Silver-Plated Ware,

CUTLERY, ALBUMS, CLOCKS,

JEWELRY, &c.

At very much under the Regular Prices, and they will be SOLD

CHEAP.

We intend always to keep a nice assortment of goods, sell them

at low rates, have one price, and use everybody well.

All are kindly invited to examine our stock

LEWIS RICH & CO.

Weymouth Landing, April 16, 1899.

THE

LARGEST STOCK

—OF—

PAPER AND LINEN

COLLARS, CUFFS

—AND—

DRESS SHIRTS

—IN—

NEW ENGLAND,

In all of the newest and most desirable styles,

may be found at

CHARLES A. NOYES & CO'S,

Nos. 72 Summer and 23 Otis Sts.,

BOSTON.

C. A. N. & CO., making this line of goods a specialty, and being Agents for the Manufacturers, are enabled to supply the trade in any quantity, and at the most favorable terms.

N. B.—A full line of PALMER'S NEW

DOUBLE YOKES, in all grades and

prices, just received, to which we would call the attention of the trade.

C. M. H. READ, of Weymouth, keeps a full line of our goods.

QUINCY MARBLE WORKS.

The Proprietor would respectfully announce that he has enlarged his premises by the addition of a WAREHOUSE, where every variety of Monumental Work, from the simplest

Grave Stone

to the most costly and elegant TABLET, may be seen finished and ready for lettering.

Builders' HARDWARE.

IRON SINKS,

&c., &c.,

FOR SALE BY

L. TUCK, - - - South Weymouth.

To that Class of People who prefer a

Custom Made Boot or Shoe,

We would state that we now have the facilities for making such in a thorough and satisfactory manner.

Our Stock is of the

FIRST QUALITY

AND CONSISTS OF

French Calf, Glove Calf,

GOAT, KID & SERGE.

We have made several Pairs of

Ladies' and Misses' Boot,

For persons in this place

who were well pleased with the Style, Stock and Work.

We ask for your patronage.

J. CRANE & SON.

The Largest Assortment of

Glass Ware

In town, and at lowest prices, for sale by

L. TUCK, South Weymouth.

The Universal

CLOTHES WRINGER,

Improved Double Gear,

and

Doty's Clothes Washer,

May be found at L. TUCK'S, South Weymouth.

One of the most Pleasant Sensations experienced

in a lifetime is when you are eating one of Copeland's Ice Creams.

AT THE

ST. CHARLES RESTAURANT,

Washington Square, Weymouth.

These Creams are direct from the celebrated manufacture of Charles Copeland. This fact is a sufficient guarantee that they are all right. Call

and see for yourselves.

Refreshments at all hours of the day and evening.

Spades, Shovels, Hoes, Axes,

and other

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS,

For sale by L. TUCK, South Weymouth.

26 ACRES OF LAND

WITH A

Small Orchard for Sale.

13 ACRES of Pasture and Meadow Land, with a small Orchard in bearing order.

Also, about 13 acres of Woodland, 12 years

growth. All within three minutes walk of Plymouth Turnpike, on Torrey's Lane. Terms reasonable.

Also, a large house lot on Plymouth Turnpike, with a cellar on the same. (Collar and Lot for $150.) Apply to

ASA B. WALES,

Weymouth Landing.

Wm. B. Hersey,

Painter, Glazier,

AND

PAPER HANGER.

Paints and Varnish for sale.

Main Street, South Weymouth.

Miss L. Hardy,

FASHIONABLE

MILLINERY

AND

DRESS MAKING,

Over Brown's Drug Store.

Machine work and Ladies' furnishing goods

done in the neatest possible manner.

South Weymouth, May 7, 1899.

THE PLACE WHERE People should Buy

THEIR

Seasonable Goods

AT

LOW FIGURES

IS AT

HENRY LOUD'S,

Broad street,

EAST WEYMOUTH,

WHERE MAY BE FOUND

